Wedding Color Accents Are Frocks of Avocado

A bridal gown of antique ivory silk taffeta was worn by Joanne Elisabeth Neff for her marriage to Gordon Lee Shira Saturday. The sculptured portrait neckline and tulle-fitted bodice were appliqued with alencon lace which was embroidered in seed pearls. The very full gathered skirt was chapel length. Her fingertip silk illusion veil was held by a small gap of alencon lace which matched her gown. She carried an heirloom prayerbook to which was fastened a white orchid and sprays of stephanotis.

Wedding vows were exchanged at 4 p.m. in St. James Episcopal church. The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. M. Parsons Neff of Yorkshire road and Mortimer A. Neff of Grosse Pointe Park. Gordon's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Shira of Davis.

and Dianne Cady. Wayne Shira was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by John Brennan, Russell Lavlad, Jr., David Beatty, William Wilkinson and Dean Berry.

SHORT beau de soie dresses in avocado green accented the fall color theme for the six attendants. Their gowns had low, fitted waistlines and back fullness in their skirts. Their headpieces were bands of ivy and flowers matching the cascade of bronze mums which they carried. The maid of honor had tulleman roses with the mums in her headpiece and bouquet.

Mimi Neff was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Rosborough, Ann Spademan, Joanne Sproule, Lydia Rothman

MRS. NEFF chose a slender sheath dress of chantilly lace in brandy brown over pale beige satin. Beige gloves and a tiny hat of bronze sequin petals completed her ensemble. Mrs. Shira wore an afternoon dress in pink pearl beau de soie. Her accessories matched her gown. Both mothers had orchids pinned to their purses.

Following the reception at Orchard Lake Country club, the bride changed to bankers grey vicuette and matching coat with a Kingfisher blue hat. Her accessories were matching and pinned to her shoulder was a white orchid. Their honeymoon trip will take
