New Column, New Columnists For Valley Woods Section

Starting with this issue, a new column has been added to "Round" the Towns section of The Eccentric, written by Mrs. Charles Deuel, 32605 Eastlady, and Mrs. Kenneth Kittle, 32600 Westlady, residents of the area.

Known as Valley Woods, the area is bounded by Lusher road on the west, 12 Mile road on the north, Evergreen on the east and an imaginary line one-half mile south of 14 Mile road.

Part of the Berkshires development, Valley Woods has grown rapidly within the past year. Now homeowners, mostly from Detroit, have come here to enjoy the area.

The Tessman's youngest daughter, Christine, has entered her first year at Immaculate High School. Christ graduated from Holy Name last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Schuster of 32165 Bellevue road attended a dinner Wednesday, Sept. 11, for the patron of the art festival at Kirk-of-the-Hills.

As members of the art festival executive committee, Mr. and Mrs. Schuster are heads of the advertising committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barlow of 21250 Smallwood road, recently left Sunday for Ant Arthur Springs, Va., and spent a four-day holiday at the Greenbrier.

Mrs. Barlow, a golf enthusiast, had her choice of two excellent golf courses and took full advantage of the opportunity.

Mr. Barlow is the chairman of the Valley Woods area.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS

A Valley Woods "hello" to new residents Mr. and Mrs. Ray Voss and family of 32350 Eastlady road, formerly of Rosevale Park.

Their son, Ray, a graduate of Redford high school, is entering the University of Michigan and is in the ninth grade at Birmingham high school.

Voss, a manufacturer's agent, heads his own sales agency, the Material Sales Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hullock, formerly of Ferndale, are now at home at 32390 Plumwood road. Tom is connected with the building business and his wife, Lorraine, is head nurse in dermatology at the Henry Ford hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Gunther and family have moved into their new home on Plumwood road. Bob, 14, is a freshman at Birmingham high school; Tim, 8, and Ricky, 6, are attending Holy Name school. Gunther, an architect with Boddy, Benjamin, and Woodhouse, designed their new home. He is also an enthusiastic stamp collector.

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS!

It has been a week of birthday celebration at the Charles Shull home on Bellevue trail. David and Janet have kept mother busy baking birthday cakes. Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bea and favorite aunt and uncle made up the family parties. David had seven candles on his cake and Janet 11. A small theatre party was also planned for Janet.

ENTERS TRAINING

Camille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tessman of 32765 Eastlady road, has entered St. Joseph Mercy hospital for her first year of nurses training.

Camille attended one term at Birmingham high school but, re-

Girl Scouts Begin Activities In Franklin

FRANKLIN—Girl Scout activities in Franklin get under way this season's first troop meetings, to be held during the first week of October. There will be two new third grade Brownie troops this year with the girls from Mrs. Robert Barlow's home at 21250 Smallwood road, and Mrs. Hugh Martin as co-leader and Mrs. T. J. Adams as leader.

They will hold their first troop meeting from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 4, in the social room of the Franklin Community church. Those from Mrs. Gavi's third grade class will have Mrs. Joseph O'Haver as their leader and Mrs. John Scolaro as co-leader on Tuesday, Oct. 4, from 3:30 to 5:00 on Wednesday, Oct. 5.

THE TWO fourth grade Brownie troops will meet at the church on Monday, Oct. 3. Mrs. Conno Shelton is leader and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson is co-leader of one troop, while the second group will have Mrs. George Howard as their leader and Mrs. Willard Chapoton as co-leader.

The re-activated fifth grade Intermediate Scout troop will have Mrs. Roy Jones as their leader and Mrs. Jack Skeels and Mrs. Ernest Holington as co-leaders. The troop's first meeting, at the church, will be held on Thursday, Oct. 6.

MRS. ROBERT BAXLEY is leader and Mrs. Jack Faulkner co-leader of the sixth grade Intermediate Scout troop which meets at the church from 3:30 until 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 4. The seventh grade Intermediates will be under the leadership of Mrs. Oliver Garwood and Mrs. David Shepherd. The date of the troop's first meeting has not yet been announced.

Mrs. Herbert Taracks, Franklin Girl Scout neighborhood chairman, will hold a meeting at the church at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 27, for all adult scout personnel, including the leaders, co-leaders, committee members and others.

Mrs. Conno Shelton was hostess at luncheon and a get-together of fourth grade leaders at her home on Beauvill last Tuesday. One of last year's leaders, Mrs. Fran Taylor, attended.

Mrs. Robert Baxley and Mrs. Jack Faulkner met with all sixth grade mothers at the Faulkner home last Tuesday afternoon, to set up committees and discuss scout activities for the year ahead.

Celebrate 25th Anniversary

VALLEY WOODS—Mr. and Mrs. Roland N. Worthy of 32500 Eastlady road celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house Sunday, Sept. 11.

The open house and buffet supper was planned by the Worthy children, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jr., and daughter Kathy, Mary Louise, Ray, Alan and Larry.

Table decorations were carried out in the traditional white and silver theme. The center piece was a tiered wedding cake with silver and white tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthy received many gifts, the most treasured to Mr. Worthy being a silver coin bracelet given to her by Lee. All the charms were designed and reminiscent of each highlight in their married life—the date of their wedding, each child and the 25th anniversary.

There were 47 guests present including the maid of honor and the best man, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Royal Oak.
