The James Forbes Entertain Guests at Bon Voyage Party

A cocktail and bon voyage party was given last week by Mr. and Mrs. James Forbes at their home on Buckingham road honoring Mr. and Mrs. Silvester J. Golden of Detroit, who were celebrating their silver wedding anniversary.

Her first stop in the overseas flight was Ireland where they were permitted to walk around the "old sod" for an hour, then off to London, where they were given an hour and a half stop over. She arrived in Frankfurt, Germany, the following evening.

Guests at the Forbes party were Mr. and Mrs. Silvester Golden, their son, Michael, and Laurence Golden, all of Detroit, and Mrs. Thomas J. Gallagher of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Melton of Huntington Woods, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Baker of Dunblain, Beverly Hills and Gordon Forbes who did not have to leave for New Haven and school until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Black of Riverside have been entertaining Mrs. Lawrence Merritt of San Antonio, Texas, a girlhood friend. Mrs. Merritt is now in Detroit and Birmingham while in the north.

SALMON FISHING
Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Goodhue of Dunblain chose salmon fishing in upper Canada for his vacation. With other devotees of the sport he flew to northern Ontario. Among other sportsmen present, they found as fine companion the well known TV performer, Arthur Godfrey.

During Mr. Goodhue's absence, Mrs. Goodhue and daughter Carole left home and going the east in the family car on the throughway, spent some time visiting relatives in Bethlehem, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Goodhue of Dunblain were also among those who, those Canada in a search for cool breezes this summer. With their daughter, Dorothy, they spent a month at Lake Couchiching in northern Ontario. Algonquin National Park was one of the places they found especially interesting. It was gratifying, on their return home, to be able to report that they just missed the hurricane which struck Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Roehne recently made a trip to Charlevoix to purchase a sail boat. Having done so, they returned home by water, giving them a chance to try their new vessel.

This past week they have had as guest, Peter Knolle, a student from Germany. He is in the states to continue his education and will remain Purdue University on a research fellowship.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS
Have you met the new family from Cincinnati? Mr. and Mrs. James Wood here from Ohio and are now settled in their brand new home at 18122 Riverside. Mr. Wood does free lance work on television and radio and they have three children, Susan 6, Deborah, 4, and Jimmy, 2.

EXCHANGE STUDENT
Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Tabor of Devonshire attended the annual cocktail party of the Village Players given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown in Birmingham. Mr. Tabor will be in the castle of the first play which will be presented soon.

The Tabors are one of two families who have been invited to have an exchange student from abroad. Their guest is Margaret Jennifer Davis from Otego County, New Zealand, already encoined in the Tabor home and registered in our Birmingham high school.

NEW ARRIVAL
Mrs. George Rundblad of Dunblain has just come home from Beaumont hospital bringing a bouncing baby boy 8 lbs. 10 oz. named Ted. They have another small boy George 4 and three girls, Christine, 9, Jewel, 7, and Carol, 6.

They have been well taken care of while mother was in the hospital. Grandma Rundblad came from Chicago to look after them.

The lawn of the Harlan Ritze home on Riverside was the scene of a gay and happy crowd last Thursday night, Sept. 13, was host and guests were his young school friends.

Choosing quantities of hot dogs, buns and everything else that goes with them, they then scattered in all directions for a treasure hunt.

Bill's guests were Wanda Janke and George McCracken of Larcher, Barbara Bailey, Ken Mitchell, Fred Bailey, and Larry Berthaus of Kirkshire.

WNFGA Meet Today
WEST BEVERLY - A meeting of the Beverly Branch of the WNFGA association will be held Thursday, Sept. 22. A trip will be taken through Cranbrook House and gardens. Members should meet at the iron gate across from the church at two o'clock.

We Heard It Said By:
MRS. WILLIAM McCALLUM, East Maple, organizer of the Walnut Lake Woman's National Farm and Garden association. "The Walnut Lake flower show last Saturday was most charming. It was their first judged show and very successful. They had so many blue ribbon winners that they ran out of blue ribbons. It was quite unusual and I am very proud of 'em!"

Youngsters Entertained By Magic Show at Party

A birthday party with a built-in floor show was that of Kurt Von der Heide, 5-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Von der Heide, Worthington road.

Kurt's father is a magic hobbyist and put on a magic show for the guests. There were games, cake and ice cream but the whole party as far as the kids were concerned, was the magic show.

Guests were Sandy Fraser, Rocky and Wally Stecker, Joan Carter, Billy Garlick, Peter Allen, Lloyd Engel, Lamont and Glen Richter, Judy Goode of Birmingham and Margie Branner.

Another celebrating her birthday was Kathleen Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Sullivan who marked her ninth birthday, Sept. 20. Last weekend, she enjoyed the company of her parents as a birthday dinner in her honor.

The evening of her birthday, Joan Herzog of Wing Lake Farms was her dinner guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Engel, Wing Lake road recently attended a dinner dance at the Harlan country club. Ann Arber as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson of Detroit. The occasion was the club's annual President's ball.

Last week Mrs. Engel entertained her Northwest Detroit Women's Republican club of Detroit at lunch. It was the first organizational meeting of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, Summingdale and daughter, Kay, took Mrs. Robinson's niece, Patricia Robinson and friend Joan Evans, both of Madison, N. J. to Michigan State university Sunday to begin their freshman year.

The girls came from New Jersey a week early and have been house-guests of the Robinsons pending the college opening for the past week.

Robert Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, is enrolled for his senior year of college work at Wayne university. Bob had two years at Highland Park junior college and one year at Michigan State university.

SUMMER HOME GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darling have enjoyed a glorious summer spending every weekend at their summer home on Bear Lake. Most of the time they were able to leave Thursday evening and have three full days in which to entertain the many friends with whom they shared their summer home. Some ten different couples were their guests over the summer months.

The Darlings are bonding in addition to the lake home, adding a carport and a large screened porch.

Recently Mrs. Darling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lusdele of Libertyville, Ill., were guests for a week. While at their Wing Lake home, Mr. Lusdele enjoyed a catch day was most charming. It was a day of luck from Wing Lake. They also accompanied the Darlings to Bear Lake for a few days.

Mrs. George Witherspoon, Dakota Circle entertained Sept. 11 at

Wing Lake PTO Holds Meeting

WING LAKE - First meeting of the Wing Lake PTO was held Wednesday evening in the all-purpose room of the school. Parents and children enjoyed a picnic dinner with coffee served by the PTO board.

Arthur Zebedees Go East to Enroll Son in School

WEST BEVERLY - Mrs. Arthur Zebedees of Riverside has been at home this past week having driven east to register son Bill at Dartmouth.

Going the easy and quick way over the New York Thru-way, they found it a pleasant and enjoyable trip. The scenery and foliage were at their best she reported and the rapidly changing scenery never became monotonous.

They stayed at Hanover Inn adjacent on the campus which made it convenient for visiting the museum and other places of interest connected with this famous school.

Mr. Zebedees followed them by plane on Thursday, a circuitous but speedy route, and drove home with Mrs. Zebedees arriving Sunday night. They left Bill happily situated with two likable boys from Colorado and Kansas City as island, Ga., enjoying a vacation room mate.

MRS. H. F. FROEHLICH, president of the Lathrup Women's Bowling league, prepares to throw the first ball of the season to get league teams into action.
