First Aid Course Offered By Civilian Defense Unit

Mrs. Lynn Hershey, co-director of civil defense, announced this week an American Red Cross standard course of instruction in first aid to the injured, to be given in Franklin the first part of October.

Fifty enrollees are sought and Mrs. Hershey hopes to get an equal number of men and women into this activity. Reservations in the class may be made with Mrs. G. Wellington Smith, Mrs. Clyde Warkley, Mrs. Kenneth Waggoner or Mrs. Harlow Bates.

Certificates of those who took the course in Franklin in 1954 have expired and may be renewed only by completing the work again. Mrs. Dave Bartleson, one of the most enthusiastic gardeners in these parts, has transferred his activities, greatly abated, to the rocking chair.

It seems that he sneaked away with son J.D.'s new bike for a spin around the neighborhood and would have made it but for a small dog whose barking at the wheels upon his helmetmanship and the bike's possession of the bike has returned unequivocally to J. D.

In a like vein, Jo Nichols, one of the clowns in the Round-up parade, did her job so well that she is going about with her arm in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ziegelbar have had visiting them at their Franklin road home his cousin, Dr. and Mrs. Ed P. Marcillat of Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Ziegelbar was hostess last Friday afternoon to 32 guests at a desert and bridge party at her home. Proceeds went to the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Franklin Community Church.

Mrs. Robert Rowe was hostess the same day to 32 guests at a similar affair at her home on Normandy road, with the proceeds also going to the W.S.C.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Herta, who have been vacationing and visiting relatives in New York, have returned to their place 604 Highland road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews left last Sunday to spend a few days in New Orleans. They returned here last night.
