Both Big and Little Girls Like A Peek into Carey's Dollshop

By ELIZABETH BUNSELL

A little doll shop, a girl's delight and a boy's dream, is part of Mrs. Walter Carey's home in the Highland Park area of Birmingham. The shop, with its bright red and yellow decorations, is the heart of Mrs. Carey's doll collection.

The shop was started several years ago when Mrs. Carey's daughter, young Elizabeth, asked for a doll shop for Christmas. Mrs. Carey, a former seamstress, decided to make the shop a reality. She spent many hours designing and creating the shop's unique decorations and furniture.

The shop is a testament to Mrs. Carey's love of dolls and her dedication to her daughter. Elizabeth, now a young woman, still visits the shop whenever she returns to Birmingham.

Another reason why the shop is special is its location. It is situated in the heart of the Highland Park neighborhood, making it a favorite spot for children of all ages.
