Wedding Color Accents Are Frocks of Avocado

A bridal gown of antique ivory silk taffeta was worn by Louise Elisabeth Smith for her marriage to Gordon Lee Shirley Saturday. The dupioni portrait bodice of the $250 fitted bodice was applied with silver lace which was embroidered in seed pearls. The very full gathered skirt was draped length. She draped silk illusion veil was fastened by a small gap of silver lace which matched her gown. She carried an ivory brocade handbag to which was fastened a silver clasp.

Shirley was born in Birmingham, son of James Baillie and Mrs. M. Frances Kieffer Shirley of Birmingham. His groomsmen were Hugh C. and Fred C. Wing of Birmingham, T. B. and Mrs. Albert B. Price of Birmingham, and James B. of Birmingham.

Mrs. S. R. Shirley was his brother's mother, Mrs. James Baillie, was his mother, and Mrs. James Baillie, was his father's mother. The men were chosen by Mr. and Mrs. James Baillie.

The bridesmaids wore Avocado green dresses. Misses Kay and Mary Gray carried the veil. The maid of honor was Miss Amy Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Baillie.

Mrs. Shirley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Shirley of Birmingham. The bride's father was Mr. John C. Shirley and Mrs. John C. Shirley was his mother. His father's mother was Mrs. John C. Shirley.

The wedding was conducted by Rev. Mr. J. H. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Mr. J. H. Smith was the officiating minister. The bride's father, Mr. John C. Shirley, was the best man.
