Echoes From Europe

Describes Baptist Alliance

By THE REV. EMIL KONZT, D.D.
Pastor, First Baptist Church

London was the scene of the meeting of thousands of Baptists from all over the world. During July, 1950, the delegates of over 25 million Baptists in 60 countries assembled to observe the 150th anniversary of the Baptist World Alliance.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.

The conference was attended by 3470 representatives, representing 47 countries. The 500,000 Baptists of the United Kingdom were represented by over 1,000 delegates.

The theme of the conference was "The Message of Baptist Churches in the World's Message to the Nations." The Baptist World Alliance is the largest Protestant missionary organization in the world, with a membership of 264,000 ministers and 870,000 laypeople.