

'Stalag 17' Opens Village Players' 33rd Stage Year

"Stalag 17," the play that hit Broadway "like a ton of bricks" and enjoyed a prolonged run before it went West to win Oscars for actors like Bill Holden and others in movieland, has been chosen to open the 33rd season for the Birmingham Village Players.

Rehearsals for this busy and virile comedy-melodrama by Donald Bevan and Edmund Trzcinski are under the direction of veteran actor and director, Dr. Jack Hassberger, with Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr. assisting.

Performance dates have been set for two week-ends, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21 and 22, Oct. 28, 29.

An "open show," "Stalag 17" is one of two plays which the Players are producing this year for the general public.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN E. LANDS

Couple Married Friday In Presbyterian Rites

John E. Lands claimed Barbara Lee Kitchen as his bride in a double-ring ceremony Friday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Glen W. Harris officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kitchen, 3047 E. Everett, Southfield township, John, who lives in Royal Oak is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lands of Spartanburg, S. C.

Barbara wore a teal blue sheath to which she pinned a corsage of orchids.

MURIE Casselman, aunt of the bride, was her matron of honor and only attendant in a navy blue crepe suit with a corsage of white carnations.

John Spencer was best man.

Mrs. Kitchen was dressed in a navy blue wool suit with an ice blue sash and pink carnations.

A dinner party at Devon Gardens followed the wedding. The newlyweds are now making their home in Toledo and plan a two-week honeymoon trip to Florida in November.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties, are all news—all the society editor about them.

Antelope Hunting Takes Hopkins on Wyoming Trip

By VIRGINIA COLE

Antelope hunting in Casper, Wyo. was the unique experience of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred P. Hopkins, Colby Lane when they visited the parents of Mr. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Linton Hopkins during the past three weeks.

Although antelope are found, for the most part in herds, their excessive speed makes for a real challenge in hunting them. Three of them, however, were not fast enough to escape the keen aim and eye of Hopkins. The Hopkins are looking forward to some tasty winter dinners of antelope steak from the barbecue pit of the "squirrel room" of their Colby Lane ranch home.

DURING THEIR visit the family spent three days at Jackson Lake Lodge at Moran, Wyo. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. bought a large section of this land in the Teton mountains and recently built this beautiful lodge. Guests enjoy the quiet, scenic mountain environment, taking unusual color shots of the impressive Tetons.

Another side-trip was to Jackson Hole, a small town located in a valley. Historically, it is said to have been a bad-men's hide-away. It is now one of the Wyoming interest points for visitors.

Tea Honors New Mothers Of Quorton

The Quorton School PTA board members will honor mothers new to the area at a tea on Thursday, Oct. 6, from two to five, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brookman, 2420 Broadway, Bloomfield Village. The teachers will also be honored on this occasion.

Mrs. Brookman and Mrs. Carl Marx, co-chairmen of the hospitality committee will be assisted by Mrs. Richard Hansen, Mrs. Darwin Ferguson, Mrs. Clemons Ludlow, Mrs. George Jacoby and Mrs. A. W. Welch.

Among the teachers new to the school this year are Mrs. Betty Bineman, Mrs. Gloria Edwards and Miss Carol Floyd, first grade; Mrs. Barbara Jeffers and Mrs. Mary Morris, second grade. New special teachers assisting at Quorton are Mr. Frank Colpitts, speech correctionist, and Miss Donna Westerlund, physical education.

Officers Installed

New officers of the Past Presidents club of MOMS of Zone 1 were installed at a joint MOMS meeting in Gingsville.

Mrs. Robert Faulfer now heads the group as president. Assisting her will be Mrs. George Penny, vice president; Mrs. H. M. Sharpe, recording secretary; Mrs. James M. A. O., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Norman Porter, treasurer; Mrs. Jane Potts, chaplain; and Mrs. Mae Jones, historian.

Here from England

A recent houseguest of Harold Speak from Yorkshire, Eng. was Dr. Robert Albert Speak. He also visited his niece, Mrs. Herman Peters of Maryland avenue, Mrs. Kermit Bennett of Eaton road and Mrs. Robert Stackhouse of Royal Oak.

Here on a combined business and pleasure trip, he previously attended a tool convention in Chicago. He left Sunday, with plans to travel through Canada, then return home by air.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Football Games Attract Hills, Village Residents

Park drive, and the R. Malcolm McLellan of Detroit.

MR. AND MRS. CYRIL A. Underhill, of N. Cranbrook, Bloomfield township, were hosts to a group at the Michigan-Missouri football game last Saturday, later taking their party to the Detroit Athletic Club for dinner and dancing.

They journeyed to Ann Arbor in the Wabash Railroad Special Football train. Guests were the J. Robert Musky, the Jack Lawrence, the Joseph Wellman and Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Young of St. Louis. State game together and afterwards the Rothangs will entertain at cocktails and a dinner party at their home.

Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Vancicly of Lake Keatinge, Jr.
