2 Families Going East for Colleges

The Julian B. Wilsons of Washington and the Harry I. Winstons, of Aspen, are among Birminghamites going in the next few days for eastern meetings. Attending a directors' meeting for a new housing center opening in Washington, D.C. this weekend, are the Wilsons, who'll be flying east immediately after the Michigan-Michigan State football game. Mrs. Winston will be attending a board meeting of Bennington college, that is just 30 miles from the summer home from which the Winstons only recently arrived. But the meeting will be in New York, at the New York Times offices, since two others on the board of trustees are Times men. Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Ezzentric.

On Campus, At Home, Localites Are Busy

College campuses are having first meetings of clubs and pledging Greek groups, while at home the social season is becoming stultic.

Alice Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holmes, 605 Pleasant, has assumed duties as National Student Association chairman of the Associated students at Colorado Woman's College in Denver. A senior, she majors in liberal arts, and is coordinating the campus with other campuses in state and nation.

At Denison university, Granville, O., Donald P. Kipp, Jr., of Valley Spring court, has pledged Beta Theta Pi, Thomas R. Turner, Kenneway court, Sigma Chi, and John Hogabard, Henrietta, Phi Delta Theta. All are freshmen.

MRS. LEE BARTLING is back at her Ardmore drive home after seeing daughter Jane to Mary A. Burnham school at Northampton, Mass.

Anne Gilcrest is a freshman at Earlham college, Richmond, Ind. Also in Indiana, Richard H. Lov, Mohegan, and William A. Arthur, Seelman, Arlington, are freshmen pledging the Wabash college chapter of Phi Kappa Psi.

JUST A SUNDAY dinner turned into a 40th anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Stark, Sr., when their two sons and daughter had 30 guests to the Starks' home on Ridgedale, Birmingham. The party was given by the Harry, Jr., and Neil Stark and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huston.

Mrs. Leroy G. Vandever of Sussex Road, Bloomfield Hills, was hostess Tuesday to luncheon for Mrs. P. V. Wagley, formerly of Pontiac, now living in Fort Lauderdale. Mrs. Wagley has been the recent housewife of Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Christie of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Fitzgerald of Pontiac.

THE VANDEVERS early this month attended the National Bar Association at Philadelphia. After returning home, Mrs. Vandever and daughters, Connie and Lindsay were off again for Andover, Mass., to enroll Lindsay in her first year at Penna. Hall. Connie is now at the University of Michigan where she is a senior working toward B.S. in physical therapy. James Vandever of Rome, N. Y., Mrs. Vandever's nephew, spent a
