Mr. and Mrs. Upham Will Live in Ohio
Mary Louise Drake wore her sister's veil of Belgian applied lace when she became the bride of Bradley Thompson Upham at 8:30 p.m., Friday in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Perry R. Williams officiated. The fitted basque of her pure silk satin bridal gown was fastened with a portrait neckline, accented with applique of Belgian lace. Graceful folds of the full skirt fell into a chapel train. She carried white roses. Mary Louise is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Drake of Pilgrim. The Stephen P. Uphams of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, are the parents of the groom.

PRESENTING Aquascutum TO AMERICA
If Aquascutum didn't exist, it would have to be invented. For where else can a gentleman find such masculine elegance in rainwear? Where else can he find the famed British flair for rugged wear? And the answer... for one hundred years... has been, "Where indeed — save in Aquascutum." Today, Aquascutum is bringing weather-proofed, tailored and shipped to us in ever-increasing supply from London.

Honor attendants had gowns of cerise blue satin and the maids wore similar gowns of gold satin. Bands of bronze chrysanthemums formed the headresses and they carried bronze mums. Bradley's father was his best man. Ushers were two brothers of the groom, Stephen P. and David L. Upham, Jr., D. Donald Harris, Arthur J. Packard, Jr., Frank Taylor and Herbert H. Upton, Jr. Mrs. Drake chose a floor length gown of pale blue chiffon with a lace and chiffon bodice and a small hat of matching lace with a pearl-trimmed face veil. She had white cymbidium orchids pinned to her purse. Mrs. Upham had a shoulder corsage of mauve cymbidium orchids pinned to her floor length gown of beige chiffon with lace and sequin trim. For going away the bride donned a cinnamon brown tweed suit with black head trim. After Oct. 10 they will make their home at 207 East Vine street, Mt. Vernon, Ohio.
