Heavy Schedule Set For Junior Hi Group

A field representative of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild spoke at Barnum's first assembly. A movie, "Builders of Tomorrow," was shown and the Fisher Body model car contest was announced. The auditorium looked like an automobile show. Pictures of the "Saber" and "Firebird" were shown and the cars explained.

The contest announced is for boys 12 to 19 who are interested in designing and building model cars. Each boy received a booklet containing expert advice.

THERE ARE 960 pupils enrolled at Barnum junior high school this year. In the seventh grade are 495 pupils, and in the eighth grade, 465. The faculty numbers 45.

Eight new teachers this year are special teachers: James Bird, Michigan State Normal college; Mrs. Zenobia Bartlett, University of Michigan; and Miss Sally St. Clair, University of Detroit.

There are three new Home-making teachers: Mrs. Virginia Fisher, Nebraska; Miss Nancy Daniels, Iowa State college and Western Michigan college; and Miss Ruth Olson, Michigan state university. The band and orchestra perform at various school programs such as plays, Christmas program, spring festivals, and the all city music festivals. In addition to band and orchestra, students take part in section classes on their various instruments.

The library opened Monday 25 for the language arts classes with 150 new books.

JA Opens Season With Assembly

A Junior Achievement assembly was presented last Thursday for Birmingham high school juniors and seniors.

Guest speaker, Harry Simanek, program director of Junior Achievement, said the purpose of the organization is to demonstrate the value of money to teenagers and to determine their best fields.

A national organization, JA is sponsored by business men of over 1500 firms, with the intention of furnishing better employees for the future.

Opening Oct. 10 in the Birmingham theater building, JA will take only two hours a week student time. Participants will gain experience as well as earn money. Social activities are also available for members along with scholarships and travel opportunities.

New Students Feted At 1955 'Sock Hop'

The annual Sock Hop honoring freshmen and new students was presented by Birmingham Student Congress last weekend in the gym.

During intermission Dave Dixon played master-of-ceremonies while Student Congress officers Bob Hohmeyer, secretary; Jay Lewis, vice president; Sandy Skinner, treasurer; and Carole Negri, secretary, awarded prize money.

Working under general chairman Don Thacker were Virginia Huntington, decorations; Carole Negri and Myrna Moxley, refreshments.

1,800 Hi Schoolers Undergo Iowa Tests

Iowa tests of national educational development were taken by 1,800 students Monday through Wednesday mornings this week. Directing the project was William Clarke, Birmingham counselor.

Profile cards showing the students' educational progress will be returned within three weeks. These cards will enable teachers and parents to spot weaknesses and strengths in academic performance.

New Teachers, First Dance Among Openers

By JAN REETZ

SOUTHFIELD HI—New faces are common on the faculty this year, the commercial department rating highest with three new members.

Miss Nancy Harrington from Charlotte, Miss Janis Zorman, Jonesville, and Miss Janet Eliason, Lincoln Park are graduates of Michigan State University. Miss Zorman and Miss Eliason are getting into "the swing of things" at Southfield as Y-Teen sponsors.

Social studies and mathematics rate next with two new members each added to their departments. One Daniel Merovich, a Michigan State Normal graduate, claims Calumet as his home town. Ed Bryant, a graduate of Olivet College, hails from nearby Farmington.

Physical education and science each have one new teacher. Neal Powers of Ann Arbor and Miss Helen Donnelly of Allen, Michigan are both graduates of Michigan State Normal.

Right colored streamers, suggestive of argyle socks, decorated the gym and "The Zoots," a popular pantomime group from Southfield, and Joe De Curtis, a pantomime artist from Berkeley, entertained the shoe-less dancers.

on second glance you decided you were seeing double? Wait! Before you visit your optometrist let me clue you, they were only patrons of Southfield's "Sock Hop" and the two pair of identical socks were no doubt a Southfielder and his "lark."

Mrs. Irma Wright, chairman; Monte Charles, Miss Suzanne Robinson, Miss Rita Przybyla, David Soule, and Joseph Dunham, sponsors, were the chaperones for the Sophomore dance which was open to the school body. Last year's class officers Jim Stoya, Jim Blackford, Dave Krause, Sharon Bradley and Carolyn Nepsted were the committee.
