Virgin Islands Trip Cancelled Because of Hurricane Threat

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Carr, Maple road, left for a planned tour of the Virgin Islands two weeks ago, but when they got as far as Miami, they were advised against continuing any farther.

One of the hurricanes, Bilda or perhaps it was Janet, was giving Havana, Cuba, a bad time with her wild capers. The Carrs stayed a few days at the Balmoral hotel at Miami beach, then returned north to Chicago.

They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamer of Fairview, Ill. Mrs. Carr also attended the silver wedding anniversary of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ross of Highland Park, Ill.

The Walter Marybys of Lone Pine road are back from a recent trip to New Orleans, La., where they attended the Farm Institute Equipment convention. The Merritt D. Hills, Wabek road, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Moeen were also in the group.

The Harold Halls, Hills drive, have returned from a recent trip to Florida. They went down for some fishing at Panama Beach. Marge and Jack Splitstone, Gilbert Lake road, made a recent trip to Kalamazoo where they spent a weekend with old friends, the Byron Campbells.

COFFEE FOR MOTHERS
Mrs. James Willenhorst held a coffee in her home on Lahser road on Tuesday for about 25 mothers of 6th grade students at Bloomfield Village school. Bobly Winterhalter attends school there.

BACK TO SCHOOL
Mrs. Francis Gallaudet and daughter, Andy, have returned to their home after accompanying Mich to Wash., D.C. where Mich will attend the Georgetown Visitation convent.

While in the capital, the group took in the "tourists' musts." They saw the Washington monument, official buildings, and even got a rare peek at the executive offices. The family visited Gallaudet College for deaf mutes, founded by the Gallaudets' great-grandfather.

Jeff is back from her recent jaunt to Denver where she attended the wedding of a classmate, Elaine Wallbank. Last Saturday Ed attended the Michigan-Missouri game and young Tommy, a St. Hugo's student last semester, is now attending Vaughan.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gallaudet entertained Alice Cumiskey and Jerry Gillette, who will be married Oct. 1.

Susan Swan, daughter of the Harry Swans of Oakleigh, recently attended Amy Miller's party at the Harry Miller home on Franklin road.

Nathalie Croff from Sheridan, Wyo. is visiting Mrs. H. A. Reye of Goldview drive.

Paris Visit Brings Wistful Memories

GILBERT LAKE — A wife's letters arriving from Europe are causing a touch of wistfulness in a Lone Pine road residence. It is Karl Richards's desire to join his wife and to see again the Paris he loved so much before the war.

Mrs. Richards and her daughter, Caroline Styler left for Europe in June and because of business commitments, Richards has been unable to join them as previously planned.

Karl and Mrs. Richards lived in Paris for years before the war, by which time he had a duplex apartment near the Seine. Richards stayed in Paris until France fell. Mrs. Richards and her daughter visited Munich on this recent trip. Caroline's husband is stationed there with the army. Mrs. Richards found, according to her letters, many delightful places along the Italian coast.

The Richards were always conducted an exchange system through the years, whereby the Richards' children went to Paris to live while foreign children came to stay in the Richards home.

The two boys, Morgan and Hobby, who remained home with their father, have not been idle, however, taking a trip west with their mother to see eldest son, Harold, who has a ranch at King Hill, Idaho. Trout fishing was great and there was plenty of riding and he-man activities.

Seek Improvements Calling Volunteers

FRANKLIN — Commissioners of the Franklin Volunteers Fire Department met at the home of Lieutenant Denny Converse last week to conduct the month's business.

A portion of the session was devoted to a discussion with a representative of Michigan Bell, seeking improvements in the calling of volunteers remote from the fire station, and final plans were made for the distribution of Fire Prevention week material to Franklin school children.

We Heard It Said By:
Glenn W. Levey, Southfield, Kiscanaw: "We had 41 members and guests at last week's meeting. If anyone got shorted on food, it was because no one was expecting so many. However, no one was observed staggering away from the meeting as a victim of starvation even though some of us didn't get any pie."

Goodbye My Fancy
FRANKLIN Board of Directors of the Franklin Village Players have chosen for their fall production, "Goodbye My Fancy." Dates for the play's presentation and a cast have yet to be selected.

Are you thinking of having a new home? Then read the "For Sale—Houses" column on the Classified Ad page of this week's Centric.

North-sided Boxes
BLOOMFIELD — Residents on the north side of Maple road, between Lahser and Telegraph, have requested permission from the Birmingham post office to relocate their mail boxes to the north side of Maple.

Football Contest Will Draw Many Localites to Ann Arbor

A family divided will be the Dave Bartlesons when they attend the UM-MSU game at East Lansing this Saturday. She attended the University of Michigan and he the now Michigan State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nichols and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Andries of East Lansing, will also represent MSU alumni at the game.

In a party making the trek to East Lansing will be Mr. and Mrs. Preston Doner, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Restrick, Jr., of Birmingham, and the John Kohls, of Detroit.

The Robert Hampsons will be hosts at dinner after the game, at their home on Woodlure drive. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Miller of Ann Arbor, and the J. L. Camerons and Ed Landly, of Dearborn.

The Joseph O'Havers were hosts at a cocktail party on their home on Captains lane last Saturday night. Also hosts at cocktails that evening were the Nelson Nolands, who entertained at their place on Vincennes road.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS
Welcome to Dr. and Mrs. John W. Eddy, former Detroiters now in their new home on Woodlure drive. Their children are Suzanne, age 19 months, and son Davin, just 6 months old. Dr. Eddy is an obstetrician on the staff of the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

Welcome, too, to Mr. and Mrs. George Donaldson, Jr., here from Livonia and settled now in their new home on North Greenbriar. Daughter Julie, 17, is in her senior year at Bentley high in Livonia. James, enrolled in Barnum school, is 12. Donaldson is with the Ford Motor Co.

The Donaldsons will spend the weekend in the Higgins lake area hunting deer with bow and arrow, in the company of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Main of Jackson.
