THIS UNIQUE FIREPLACE, in the living-dining room of the Noel Buckner home on Cove Lane in West Bloomfield township, is indicative of the entire home which is built to conform with the sloping land which slopes down to Walnut Lake's northwestern shoreline.

Home Matches Hillside Contours

WALNUT LAKE—Unusually late by the circular stairway which leads to the master bedroom, the recreation room, utility and heating area, a study and an open patio, to accommodate swimmers going to and from the lake.

Two-way speakers bring the upstairs bedrooms of the Buckner home, Noel Jr., 5, Elizabeth, 4, and Mary, 17 months, within earshot of the Buckners and still separate the parents and children's living and sleeping areas.

Upstairs also are the children's two baths, kitchen, living and dining room combination with a centered fireplace which is open, but screened around the base. Beds which can be rolled into daytime daynappers, give children more playing room.

Buckner, head of Buckner Finance Co., in Pontiac, and his family have been living in their hillside home about four months.
