

Service To The Sick Is Our Purpose . . .

It is the heart and soul of our store, the object and justification of our presence here. Nothing is allowed to ever take its place or lessen its importance.

The Chemist Shop offers many other services and products — but your prescriptions and medical needs are our business before all else.

Officers, Committees Named by Quarton PTA

Board members of the Quarton PTA held their first meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. V. W. Greene, 312 Lake Park, and announced the slate of officers and committee chairmen for the year.

Mrs. Robert Wyatt will serve as president, with Mrs. V. W. Greene as mother vice-president. Larry Ball is father vice-president, and Miss Grace Mack, teacher vice-president. The corresponding secretary is Mrs. John Richardson, with Mrs. Charles Williams as recording secretary, and Mrs. Ned Hyde treasurer.

COMMITTEE chairmen are Mrs. Fred Gunning, general; emceed members, Mrs. Norm Berry and Mrs. Robert Wyatt; health, Mrs. A. W. Holcomb, and hospitality, Mrs. Arthur Brockman.

Mrs. Paul Grayson and Mrs. Fred McKewen will share the literary duties. Membership chairman is Mrs. Albert Bryner, and Mrs. Keith Abbott is the museum representative. Program is in charge of Mrs. Jack Laula. Publicity will be handled by Mrs. Frank Mosher, and the Quil will be edited and published by Mrs. James Stinson. In charge of the room mothers will be Mrs. Colin John.

Vacationers Turn to Town Hall Planning

Town Hall board members have packed away the vacation luggage and are organizing their committee reports in anticipation of an early board meeting called by Birmingham Town Hall president Mrs. James S. Moon, who has just returned from the family cabin at Lost Lake Woods.

Mrs. Paul Reed, stage manager, is back from Sun Valley, Idaho, and is setting final details for the initial program on October 20, and 21, a lecture by Madame Wellington Koo, wife of China's ambassador to Washington.

Welcome Three Shipman Families

Welcoming three new families to the first block on Shipman boulevard, the neighbors along that block gathered at the Cyril Duffy home last weekend for a potluck picnic and square dance.

The dance was on the Duffy's driveway, and later the picnic took place on several grills and tables assembled in the Duffy's back yard. Aid with arrangements, since the Duffy's, with daughter, Darlene, did not arrive Saturday from vacationing at Potawatomi Inn in Indiana, was given by the Wayne Landrys.

Records provided calls for square dancing, with James Skelley leading the way. The three new families, of the homes now occupied, are the Frank Adams, Byron Rollands, and the Ben Tousays, with Bing Tousay.

Stanley Styne, Jr., Takes Detroit As His Bride

Stanley K. Styne, Jr., son of the Stanley Stynes of 2990 Charnwood, in the North Adams area, spoke wedding vows with Marcia Anne Meyers of Detroit recently.

The ceremony was performed in Christ Methodist church, Detroit, with the bride wearing an Italian silk gown fashioned with a portrait neckline and edged with alençon lace.

Her veil of silk illusion fell from a bandeau of the same lace. Fuji mums were used in the bridal bouquet.

The bride is a daughter of the Paul R. Meyers of Dupuy, Detroit.

FOR THE WEDDING

The Stynes were hosts at their home to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Casey and Etta Starr of Cleveland, O. Mrs. C. A. Lewis, of Columbus, and Raymond Davenport of Chicago.

The bride's attendants were Joan Berry as maid of honor and bridesmaids, Carol Styne and Ann LeMense of San Diego, Calif., all dressed alike in cornflower blue tulle over tulle, with matching headbands.

Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Glen M. Davis of Madison avenue have returned from a four week trip through the Canadian northwest. They went aboard the Cascade Peninsula and the Maritime Province.

Weekend Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Maxwell of Hyland drive had as their houseguests for the holiday weekend Mr. Maxwell's parents, Mrs. Louise Klose and Mrs. Marion Deas, both of Kalamazoo.

Kappas Surround Play with Parties

The Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae and their guests who are supporting the Kappa's ticket sales for the Will-O-Way performance of Sept. 13, are making a social night of the event. Pre-theatre parties are being planned by the Arthur C. Prines, Jr., Peter F. Grylls, the Carl Kallwassers, Jr., the Dean G. Beters and the Gordon C. Bolings. The show, "Sabrina Fair," is playing to benefit the Kappa's project for aids for epileptic children. Aiding co-chairmen Mrs. Jack W. Minor and Mrs. LeRoy G. Vanderveer are Mrs. James Wilshire, Mrs. Val Corradi, Mrs. Ray Hober, Mrs. Robert Gordon and Mrs. John B. Murphy.

North Adams

DOROTHY JACKMAN MI 4-0890

North Adams families continue to have opportunity to welcome new residents to the area as families from Birmingham move farther out and Detroiters migrate north.

The John H. Strosen-Reuters, formerly of Lyndon road, are newcomers at 1226 Lennox Road, Bloomfield Hills. Strosen-Reuter is chief of research of the Holly Carburetor company. The family belongs to Christ Church Cranbrook, and are members of Pine Lake Country Club.

Mrs. Strosen-Reuter, or "Gary" as she is known, says growing flowers and the general care of her children are her hobbies. The children are Margaret, Dr. Bill, Dr. Fritz, 12, Bob, 11, and Penny, 6. Bill leaves this evening Monday for Glen Arbor, to begin his second year at Leelanau prep school. He is leaving one week early as there is a week of camp training for the football team, before school officially starts.

Margaret graduated last year from the University of Michigan and studied art last winter in New York. This summer she has been studying at Arts and Crafts in Detroit and plans to continue there this fall.

Betty will return to Bronsville, N. Y., this fall where she is a senior at Sarah Lawrence College.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Young of 3925 North Adams are home after a motor trip to Ohio. They were the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Garner at Lucas, and stopped over in Mansfield on their way home to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hagelman.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
Matthew South of Beach Road was seven years old on Labor Day and proudly received that new two-wheeler he's been taking forward to owning. Matthew was willing to forego the usual party this year and celebrated instead at a family dinner at Orchard Lake Country Club, presided by a swim in the Club's pool.

The executive board of the Pembroke PTA met Tuesday evening to map out plans for the coming year. Among North Adams residents serving on the board is Mrs. R. C. Embury of 4145 Ridge Circle, Recording Secretary; Alfred Baumann, Jr., 1291 Rouge Circle, chairman of Budget and Finance; Mrs. Jean E. Jackman, 6065 Beach Road, and Mrs. T. Wresman of West Big Beaver road, corresponding secretary.

Embury Methodist W.S.S. meets to hear June Hutton and Dolly Houskner present a program on "The Significance of Epithets." Under the direction of Mrs. William Lomax, a birthday theme will highlight the meeting.

James Hunt Speaks To Woman's club

Birmingham Junior Woman's club will meet Tuesday, Sept. 13, at the home of Mrs. John Olson, 1992 Washington, to hear a program by James Hunt, director of children's services for Oakland County. He will talk about Camp Oakland, the summer camp, the Boys' Ranch and what they have done in the past year, plus show movies.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Edward Heins and Mrs. William McCravy.
