Ohio State Seniors Honeymoon in Quebec

Before 250 wedding guests Friday in Christ Church (Cranbrook), Sandra Jean Tischer and Perry Samuel Bonham exchanged vows and rings. The Rev. Perry Williams read the rites at 8:30 p.m.

Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George William Tischer of Westwood drive. Her husband's parents are the J. P. Bonhams of Sandusky, Ohio.

Nancy Ann Tischer was for sister, a maid of honor in a coral chiffon gown with a delicate neck-line. Her bridesmaids consisted of a coral velvet hand and veil and the carried white fans, rings and keys.

Polks Host to Opera Unit: Two Stars Come

Phyllis Curtin and Davis Cunningham of New York City opera company will be among guests when Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Jr., hostesses the Women's committee of the Detroit Grand Opera association at the senior Polks' home on Lone Pine road Sept. 27.

The tea and afternoon reception will, if the weather holds sunny and warm, include a tour of the terraced garden garden that is bounded by the small lake formed by a dam across the Rouge river at that point.

MRS. POLK, JR. will share hostess duties with Mrs. Polk, Sr., and their assistants will be Mrs. Norman H. Stouffer, Mrs. Walker A. Williams, Mrs. William H. Beatty and Mrs. Thomas C. Baker.

Mr. Williams, the women's committee chairman of the association, will conduct the singing and present the two operetta acts.

Mrs. Curtin and Cunningham will have their assistants in opera in Detroit this fall, for which the association is sending to some extent.

SHI WHEE BE held in "Money Wagon" at Woodrow and "The Big Demand" while "An Inflection" was one "Individual" and "The Love for These Things."

As each act, they'll be given an opportunity to sign the goods.
