Guests were Judy Henrich, Carolyn Naylor, Joan and Skip Sweeney, Judy and Jane Barlow, Judy Montgomery, Sharon Semowski, Craig Partridge, Joan Duffy, Patricia Walter, Gail Zak and Jennifer Roy.

Marilyn's cousin, Billy Menner, came out from Detroit to sing his happy birthday wishes along with the rest.

VACATIONERS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stahl spent the first week of their vacation in their old home town of Dayton, Ohio. Since this was their first trip back with their children, Douglas and Cindy, the Stahls had a wonderful time showing the youngsters off to all of their classmates and friends who still live in Dayton.

They returned to their home on Auburn drive just long enough for a reinforcement and then went on to Rochester, N. Y. to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Freeman. While there, they were the houseguests of Harold's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stahl, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Portwood of Kirkshire and daughter Barbara, a senior mechanical engineer of the University of Detroit and a senior mechanical engineer with the American Motors company, returned to their home on Auburn drive just long enough for a reinforcement and then went on to Rochester, N. Y. to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Freeman. While there, they were the houseguests of Harold's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stahl, Jr.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

Three families have left Detroit and settled in new homes on Beechwood within the last eight weeks. Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Connor and daughters Kathy, 3, and Julie, 1, now live at 16291 Beechwood.

O'Connor tries to get in a little golf and bowling for his relaxation and during working hours can be found at the Rotary Electric Steel Corp.

Right across the street from the O'Connors, Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Betley moved into their new home at 16296 Beechwood. There are three little Betleys, David, 4, Cindy, 3, and Daniel, 2. The Betleys have joined the Lutheran church of the Ascension. Betley is with the research department at General Motors.

Next door at 16226 Beechwood live Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Slonez and 10-month-old Day Gerard. Slonez enjoys a round of golf or bowling. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

CHECK YOUR POTENTIAL IN REAL ESTATE SALES AT OUR EXPENSE!

Headed for the heights, building from a strong foundation—that's our sales team! We want some new associates: inexperienced, but with high potential and an appetite for constructive, challenging work.

We will test screen, at our expense, all who are interested—and will discuss with them fully and frankly the probabilities of success in this business.

Capable real estate counselors have been developed from men in nearly every field of endeavor. Many women have enjoyed unusual success: widows, divorcees, and career women with positions of limited opportunity are prime candidates.

Week-end work is necessary as are some evenings. Earnings are not assured or guaranteed—nor are they limited! A pleasant personality, an even disposition and good health are requisite.

Interested? Want to talk it over in strict confidence? Address Box 230, The Birmingham Eccentric, including your telephone number, and a brief resume of your background.

Don't Point That Gun at Me, Officer—I Dint Do Nothin'

FRANKLIN—Ever come up to a road block with officers of the law aiming vicious-looking guns at your car windows? This unusual experience happened at two points in Muskegon and Grand Rapids to the Thomas Dabson family, returning from a family vacation at Eden Lake.

The armed champions of peace and order had ringed Muskegon, in a case of an escaped convict charged with murder, no less. The convict was caught next day, holed up in a relative's home north of Muskegon.

3 IN 1 PARTY

The David Schutte's on Beverly Court were invited last week by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jenkins and son Ronnie, from the old home town, Mexico, Mo.

One of the highlights of a week of entertaining for the Jenkins was a barbecue dinner party given in the Schutte's yard on Tuesday.

It was also a welcoming party for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hommel, newcomers by Verona Circle and a going-away party for Betty and Floyd Reynolds, former Verona Circle residents, who moved to their new home on Beverly road.

Other guests at the barbecue were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacks, Mr. and Mrs. John Laica, Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Pearl, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marchetti, Mr. and Mrs. John Clemmons and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dimpler.

Charles Woods, a houseguest of the Schutte's for the past few weeks was also on hand for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Morgan and year-old son Johnnie, flew to St. Louis and were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gerrish. While there, they attended the wedding of Morgan's brother, Theodoric, by plane Monday morning and are now at home on Kirkshire.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dear and Mr. and Mrs. George Dear spent the long weekend at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hornung in Cadillac.

Mrs. Harold Woodhall and two of her three children, Jan and Hal were houseguests of the James Kelly's of Auburn drive last week. When they returned to their Akron, Ohio home on Friday, Kathy Kelly '11, went with them. She returned by plane on Tuesday.

Mrs. Annabelle Lake and Mrs. Miss Slagle of Ohio were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. William Ward of Emmons street last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Phillipson and sons Billy and Kenny of Kirkshire are settling down to a little quiet home life after spending their three week vacation in three different places.

The first week they went to Lakeside where swimming and fishing occupied all their time. They returned by way of Saginaw where they stopped off at Grandma and Grandpa Danholts for a few days before going on to Niagara Falls, sight-seeing both ways.
