Louis Browers Leaving Area For New Home in California

A group of 14 friends gathered recently in the Brower home on Hills drive to wish the Browers, who are leaving this week for their new home in California, a fond farewell.

The party was an informal one, guests bringing steaks to roast and even their own knives and forks. Louis and Mildred were presented with a going-away gift. The Browers will drive their two cars, Mildred in one car following Louis in the other, across the nation, stopping off at the various scenic points along the way.

They plan a trip to Hawaii sometime before the end of the year. Mrs. Brower said that they would see many old friends out on the coast among whom will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Suss, former Detroiters now living in Beverly Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Joe DeVali have bought the Brower home.

Bonnie Weeks, back from a vacation through Vermont and Virginia, has taken five first-place ribbons at Plum Hollow country club's swimming meets. Brother Billy has also been competing with a second place ribbon. Bonnie and Billy are the children of the W. C. Weeks of North Miller way.

The Charles Bays, quartet road spent five days at Torch Lake recently. The Bays couldn't get Loch, their six-pound collie to go in the lake for a swim in the lake, as the accidentally fell in; then the dog dove in.

Two signs of fall: the voice on the telephone asking, "Will you work on scenery?" and the Village Players get ready for their fall production, and the Bloomfield Ladies Women's Bowling League has organized its teams and will be in full swing by Sept. 20.

which finally included the press in the argument for explanation as to why the word had gone out several weeks ago that Campbell had been appointed to the supervisory post although no official action had been taken by the council.

"I still say I will represent the community at large," said Campbell. "I've lived in this community long enough to know who is working for private interests."

"During the last election we know who was calling around for which candidates."

"Are you implying that I did this?" asked Mrs. Nelson. "I was out of the state until the day of the election. You are smearing my name and I want it cleared up."

"I have made no accusations one way or another," said Campbell. "I have no more to say about this."

"I have no more to say about this," said Campbell. "I have no more to say about this."
