Thursday Tickets
Still Available
Though sales are brisk, some Thursday tickets for Birmingham Town Hall are still available, according to Mrs. Charles Bass, responsible secretary of the orrganization.
Town Hall series was given on Friday last year, but the response to the announcement of the series for the 1962-63 season was so favorable that special arrangements were made to add a duplicate program for Thursday.
The Thursday ticket may be obtained at the Post Office and the Post Office from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

ONLY YOUR COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER GIVES YOU ALL THE NEWS IN A CONVENIENT PACKAGE!

Nothing can take the place of the newspaper in the lives of American people. This is proven by the fact that folks buy 54,017,938 newspapers every day for which they pay $2,580,000 per day, or more than a billion dollars a year. No other advertising media has the selling power of the newspaper.

Advertising brings you offerings from the open competitive market so that you may choose freely what you will buy and from whom. Everybody has a stake in advertising and everybody profits from good advertising. Because advertising increases sales; sales increase profits; increased profit means increased prosperity for business, for the workers, and for the community. In your hometown newspaper people LOOK for advertising — people WELCOME advertising.

Edited by your neighbors, printed by your neighbors and delivered by people you know, The ECCENTRIC offers complete coverage of this community. You will enjoy reading The ECCENTRIC because it is written for and about local people.

Your newspaper is written and printed as a service to you. It carries the local news fresh and true. It serves to bring into your home the offerings of merchants as well as offering a market place for all in its classified advertising columns.
