School and Club Activities
Opening: Women Are Busy
When clubs open this season they'll be missing Mrs. Dwight Adams, who was active in Junior Women's Club and the AAWU Proprietors. The Detroit News in a feature story on the social life of Detroit last week said that Mrs. Adams "has left us the finest example of efficiency and efficiency in social organization that Detroit has ever known." Miss Adams was a leader in the juvenile welfare work in this city.

Nature Now
Summer is Already a Memory
By LYDIA KING TREMBLAY
