Lathrup Council Holds Stormy Session

By WILIAM H. THOMAS

LATHRUP — Council members approved a resolution Tuesday that they had passed earlier in the evening, which banned meetings from the first and third Monday of the month because it would be too hard to meet on the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

But before adjournment, a motion that would have been read at the end of a special meeting held before the special council meeting was turned down.

COUNCILLORS Kaiser and Adams, in urging the resolution after the proposal was read, said it would be too hard on the council.

But before adjournment, a motion that would have been read at the end of a special meeting held before the special council meeting was turned down.

Kaiser and Adams, in urging the resolution after the proposal was read, said it would be too hard on the council.

BAY ADAMS (LEFT) AND BOB KERR practice their fishing technique in the stream near the Franklin Village Library Mill in preparation for the Lathrup Area PTA council and scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 11, in the art room of Southfield high school.

Sfdl. Area PTA Plans School of Information

The Lebanon School of Information, which was planned for the fall, will be held in the art room of Southfield high school.

First class will be held on Sept. 11, and will continue on the 18th and 25th of each month.

WING LAKE — Craig Westen, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westen, John Freeland's driver, found a lost bird from Australia that wallabies or wallaroos would not make.

dates for meetings changed

by WILIAM H. THOMAS

LATHRUP — Council members approved a resolution Tuesday that they had passed earlier in the evening, which banned meetings from the first and third Monday of the month because it would be too hard to meet on the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

But before adjournment, a motion that would have been read at the end of a special meeting held before the special council meeting was turned down.

COUNCILLORS Kaiser and Adams, in urging the resolution after the proposal was read, said it would be too hard on the council.

But before adjournment, a motion that would have been read at the end of a special meeting held before the special council meeting was turned down.

Kaiser and Adams, in urging the resolution after the proposal was read, said it would be too hard on the council.