Southfield High Readies Spring Play

"The Form Divine", spring drama presentation at Southfield high school goes on the boards Friday and Saturday, April 13 and 14, at 8 p.m. The play is being directed by Daniel Julien of the English department, assisted by Elizabeth Robertson and Esther Yesayan, student directors.

It is the story of a teen ager who finds that her boy friend judges girls by the appearance of their mothers. When the teen-ager's mother goes to a charm school, house and home are disrupted by strange characters and mother's antics, but everything eventually winds up in order.

GLORIA Thompson is snapped doing the Charleston at rehearsals for "The Form Divine" scheduled at Southfield high school this weekend. Glofia demonstrates rehearsals are fun.

Southfield High Notes

Southfield's annual basketball banquet will be held in the school cafeteria this evening at 6:30 p.m. Invitations were sent to members of the varsity team, the freshmen reserves, cheer-leaders and their parents. The banquet is held at the end of each sport season.

Operation 205 was presented at Southfield Monday afternoon. Consisting of two 45-minute simulated radio broadcasts, the program was heard by all classes. It covered subjects from weather, by Jack Cirka, news and sports by Bob Sarge and Mike Warren, fashions by Nancy Hamill and Donna Krametz, to a variety show and skits by speech department students.

Drillings for a suitable place for Southfield's swimming pool have been completed, and architectural plans will be ready for bids about April 29. The athletic department anticipates fine swimming about January, 1957.

At a meeting of the Michigan Softball association at Waldon hotel in Pontiac, Robert Watts of Southfield was elected commissioner of Oakland county.

Students had better purchase tickets to the Varsity Shadows dance before April 18, to be sure of two things, a date and a corsage for April 21. Working on publicity and tickets is Mike Sal-singer of the Varsity club. Dick Holliday announces the Collegians are bringing two vocalists with their 15-piece orchestra. Bob Douglas and Bob Zarla are in charge of decorations for the dance.

YOU'VE NEVER "HEARD" IT SO GOOD!

We at Marty's Records are fuss-budgets about the condition of the recordings you purchase. Here are the fuss-budget extras you receive:

- ALL Long Play and Extended Play recordings are filed behind our counter in heavy green-stock sleeves. (This means no one has handled your choice except our own trained sales people.)
- ALL recordings are auditioned on Hi-Fidelity systems equipped with Diamond Stylis. (This means you purchase a recording devoid of wear, i.e.: new!)
- ALL L.P. and E.P. recordings are examined for factory defects before leaving our store. (This means no aggravating return trip for a replacement.)
- ALL L.P. and E.P. Album sleeves are displayed in browser boxes and racks... each clearly marked as to musical category. (This means you are able to make your selections in little time and no effort.)
- ALL L.P. and E.P. album sleeves are in clear plastic bags. (This means you take home a sparkling clean album sleeve every time.)

Come In Soon... See for Yourself!

For the jazz fans... just received solid senders from the recording studios of Mercury, EmArcy, Cleff, Atlantic, Coral, Fantasy, Bethlehem and Decca.

For you Background Music Lovers... Mercury, Capitol, MGM, Decca, Columbia, London, RCA Victor have been busy turning out some de-louvelies.

Have you heard Frank Sinatra's newest "Songs for Swingin' Lovers"? And it is, too.

Sarah Vaughn fans will all say, "This is Sarah's best." Harry Belafonte and Tennessee Ernie have captured early America to a "T" in their new albums, "Belafonte" and "Losty Land". Ring along smooth as silk in his newest Decca L.P. "High Tor". Our classic racks have many new pressings for the folks with Hi-Fidelity systems. Ready now for one or two-day delivery... the fabulous items from the "Cook" recording laboratories.

The foregoing can be found, of course, at...
