Abolish Titles On Hills CC

Three titles were abolished at he re-organizational meeting Tues, ay night of the Bloomfield Hill-ty commission where C. G. "Pat" den was elected mayor by fellow numissioners.

Eden was elected mayor by fellow-commissioners.
Formerly, three members had titles of fire, police and road com-titles of fire, police and road com-favor of this was abolished in favor of the commissioner-at-large distinction.

The old system created a feeling-tion, the board said.
Eden succeeds James A. Beres-ford. Beresford was presented a recognition of his work of this work of for the post two years.

EDEN TOLD the board he EBEN TOLID the board he intended to serve as mayor for only one year instead of the usual two years. Eden said the job should be exchanged more often than a two-year rotation basis.

The board convassed the April 2 election in which Eden, Beresford and constable Homer J. Murphy were re-elected without opposition.
