

Women's Club Groups Meet

Birmingham Women's club will hold departmental meetings on Tuesday.

Mrs. Earl Cunningham will be hostess to the American home department in her S. Bates street home for dessert luncheon at 12:30. Mrs. William Tighe will present a book review.

The fine arts department is meeting with Mrs. Hans Schjolin in her home on Stonebrook, Bloomfield township, for 1 o'clock luncheon. Warren Kendall of the conservation department will speak.

ANOTHER 1 o'clock luncheon is scheduled for the literature department. This group will meet at the home of Mrs. George Steelman on Yosemite. Mrs. Stuart Allen is to be chairman of the day. The program topic will be "Personal Observations of Life in India" and will be presented by Mrs. John K. Ormond.

This will be the last group of departmental meetings for the season. Club activities will wind up with a luncheon in May.

'Round-the-World' Alum Celebration

Birmingham-Royal Oak area alumni of Albion colleges will participate in the college's "round-the-world" celebration with a dinner meeting Tuesday evening.

This meeting will be held at the First Methodist church, Royal Oak, at 7 p.m. Dean Emil LeFler of Albion college will be guest.

Officers of the North Woodward Albion Alumni club are taking charge of arrangements. These are George F. Miles, N. Glenary road, Bloomfield village, president; Mrs. Ralph T. Norrump, Royal Oak, vice president; and Mrs. Helen Orvitt Heusser, Brookside drive, Birmingham, secretary.

Oakland WNFG Met On Monday

Oakland branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association met Monday afternoon at the Windemere avenue, Birmingham, home of Mrs. John Knaff.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Frank Webb, of the Birmingham WNFG branch, who spoke on flower arrangements. Mrs. Webb is co-chairman of the garden and horticulture lecture series currently being held at the Ford Botanicals.

Her informative points on flower arrangements were considered very timely by the group. They are handling the flower arrangements for the tables at Devog Gables when the Birmingham branch of WNFG holds its 30th anniversary banquet there.

SERVING on the banquet decoration committee are Mrs. Paul Wilson and Mrs. Harold Brown, both of Birmingham, and Mrs. Russell Robinson, Royal Oak. Mrs. Gerald Clark, Royal Oak, is an alternate.

Mrs. Sargent Curtis, W. Lincoln, Birmingham, has been named secretary of the Oakland branch. She will replace Mrs. John Knaff, who is moving to Menominee, Mich.

Parents Announce Marriage Plans

Announcement comes from Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wasson, North Williamsburg road, Bloomfield village, of their daughter, Janet Claire's plans for a September marriage to Donald McSutherland.

He is the son of the Donald H. Sutherland, of Plymouth, Mich. Donald graduated from Michigan State university and belongs to Sigma Chi. He is also an associate member of the American Society of Landscape Architects.

Janet will graduate from MSU in June. She is affiliated with Delta Gamma.
