

Flower Banked Altar Is Wedding Background

Before an altar banked with white stock, pompons and lilies, Leila Elizabeth Galbraith became the bride of William Bibb Hickman in Manitou Springs, Colo., on Apr. 2. Rev. Fred King performed the ceremony in St. Andrew's Episcopal church there.

Colonel and Mrs. Nicoll Fossick Galbraith, Colorado Springs, Colo., are the bride's parents. The groom's parents are the William P. Hickmans, Birmingham.

As she walked down the aisle with her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of imported antique ivory taffeta. Basque bodice of the dress was fashioned with long tapering sleeves, pointed at the wrists, and scalloped décolletage. Her full skirt, terminated in a short train and her lace-edged veil of illusion cascaded in tiers from a demi-cap of heirloom Brussels lace.

She carried an arrangement of ivory roses and stephanotis on her prayerbook.

MARION MURPHY, of San Antonio, Tex., a classmate of the bride's was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Katherine Chamberlain, Colorado Springs; and Jane Worthington, Salt Lake City, another classmate.

Identically styled taffeta gowns in tones of mocha, tan and blue were worn by the attendants. Their shell collars matched each dress and were accented by tiny self-flowers and wide circular tulle veils. They carried symmetrical bouquets of blue iris and mocha desert spoon cacti.

BEST MAN was George Quas, Boston, Mass., and Nicoll Fossick Galbraith, Whitney Howard Galbraith, brother of the bride; John Hickman, the groom's brother; and Stephen Quas, El Paso, Tex., served as ushers.

There was a reception in Cheyenne Mountain Country club after the ceremony. The bride's mother chose a gown of mocha lace, over-traced with a design of fine satin cording. Her ballhurl straw hat was bisque and her corsage Johanna Hill roses.

MRS. HICKMAN'S costume was a sheath of rose beige taffeta with matching lace applique. Her corsage was also Johanna Hill roses. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and blue iris formed the background for the receiving line on the country club sun porch. There were more white flowers on the mantelpiece and the bride's table.

When she and her husband left for a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the bride was wearing a Dior blue tweed suit with a long coat, slit at the sides and a "for-wear" look hat, which matched her navy accessories.

THE NEWLYWEDS will make their home in San Francisco when they return from Mexico.

Julia Swadlow, West Chester, Pa., the bride's great aunt; the Russell C. Whitneys, with Russell C., Jr., uncle, aunt and cousin of the bride; of Highland Park, Ill.; Gen. and Mrs. James F. Brittingham, Lawton, Okla.; the Blakeman Quas, Shaker Heights, O.; the Louis Campbells, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McInally, Jackson, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, Grose Pointe, were out-of-town wedding guests.
