Walter Simons Family Taxes To Florida in Family Plane

Most families have the problem "who gets the family car?" In the Walter J. Simons family, Woodale Court, the air age has stepped in and the problem in their family is, "who gets the family plane?"

Mr. Simons and his eldest son Jay are accomplished pilots and Mrs. Simons and 15-year-old Dale are both working hard towards their pilot license.

During spring vacation, young Jay returned from the Purdue campus, where he is a freshman, to pick up the family plane and returned to school to pick up three of his Theta Xi fraternity brothers.

The foursome, piloted by Jay, took off for Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale and points South.

One side trip was to visit Jay's grandparents, the John D. Petersons of Hovey-in-the-Hills Fla. Part of the entertainment while there was a trip up the Oklawaha river in the Petersons' cruiser to Silver Springs where they remained overnight and returned the following day.

Dale also visited his grandparents but had to travel by commercial airline as the family plane could not accommodate him. Most boys would find it exciting but Dale prefers to act as navigator for his brother and Dad.

Upon Jay's return with the plane, Mr. Simons turned it around and flew down to taxy home the rest of his family which included daughter Cheryl as well as Dale and Mrs. Simons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn of north Glengarry and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dittich of Bradway left Tuesday for a trip to Mexico. The two couples traveled by plane on the first leg of their journey. They plan to car into the interior, sight-seeing by car until they reach Acapulco where they hope to do some fishing. They will return about the first of May.

A group of ardent golfers from the Village are traveling to Pinehurst, N. Car. for two weeks of golfing. They hope the early practice rounds will help them win a few from their less fortunate companions. The party includes Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lohrey of Hupp Cross, Dr. and Mrs. Frederiek Adams of Overhill, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Keefe of Williamsbury and Dr. and Mrs. Edson of North Glengarry.

A former Villager, Mrs. A. S. Wade of Fort Wayne, Ind., has been visiting friends in Birmingham and Detroit for the past several weeks. With her were her two children, Betsy and Gussie.

Mrs. Wade gave a bridge luncheon at Red Run golf club for friends in the area while here. Her guest list included Mrs. Philip Copeland of Ardmoor, Mrs. Norman Elise, Mrs. Thomas Stacey, Mrs. Harry Rider and Mrs. John Mulcahy.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Longenecker of north Glengarry for several days this past week was the E. G. Selden family of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. Selden is Mrs. Longenecker's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cronin of Half Moon entertained at cocktails in their home last Thursday evening before the Ushers club dance of Holy Name church, held at Oakland Hills country club.

Among the group attending from the Village were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Anderman of Drury Lane, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara of Hupp Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Payne, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cruise.
