Republican Women Plan Fund Raising Campaign

Republican women were prepared with advanced planning for their 1956 fund raising in Oakland and Wayne counties long before the day President Eisenhower announced his intention to seek a second term.

Their aim this year is to increase the number of contributors by expanding the township organizations working on the drive.

The middle of this month a series of kick-off events will start the fund raising campaign that will culminate in a luncheon May 21 at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel in Detroit.

ORIGINATING the plan of having women run a parallel campaign for funds, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., appointed Mrs. Brooks Marshall of Birmingham to direct the Oakland County organization. Assisting Mrs. Marshall with the fund raising will be Mrs. Edward J. Liverance, vice chairman; Mrs. Homes Bannard, secretary; and Mrs. George Hodges, publicity.

NAMED as township chairman for Birmingham is Mrs. H. W. Williams, 655 Hawthorne; Bloomfield, Mrs. John Finnegan, 5710 Crabtree; Southfield, Mrs. Herbert Smith, 30115 Oakleaf lane; Troy, Mrs. Robert Stacy, 2846 Pine Hill; Birmingham and West Bloomfield, Mrs. Walter D. Appel, 4350 Commerce road, Orchard Lake.

Other Birmingham residents listed among the workers are Mrs. R. C. Artner, Mrs. Arthur Prince, Mrs. Joseph Wright, Mrs. Carl W. Moyer, Mrs. Arthur King and Mrs. Arthur S. McCall.

Mute Makes Friends

Louisville, Ky.—Delores Schneider, an eight-year-old deaf mute, solved the problem of making friends and playing with other children, when her family moved into a new neighborhood—by teaching the children the sign language. There's hardly a child of her age in the neighborhood who can't hold his own in two-handed conversation.

Pair Wed in Germany Will Live in Africa

Announcement comes from Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ross Fenelon, Riverside, Calif., of the marriage of their only daughter, Velda Fay.

Velda was wed to 1st Lt. Harold Charles Helgeson, son of the Harold Helgesons of Colonial court, Birmingham, April 8, in Wiesbaden, Germany.

The Lutheran double ring ceremony was performed in the air base chapel and a reception for 100 guests was held in the civilian club. Lace from Brussels fashioned the bride's veil and she wore a white ballerina length dress.

Lt. Helgeson is stationed at Wiesbaden with the intelligence department of the air force and his bride has been teaching in the American school there. Before going abroad, she taught at Liberty school in Arlington.

MRS. HAROLD C. HELGESON

SHE GRADUATED from the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha, and took post graduate work at Stanford university.

Lt. Helgeson has his BS degree in geology from Michigan State university, where he also did graduate work. An affiliate of Sigma Gamma Epsilon he is also a member of the Geological society of America.

HE SPENT a year in northern Canada as a geologist with the U.S. army and leaves the service after honeymooning on the Riviera and a motor trip through Spain and France, the newly married pair will sail from Southampton, England, to Capetown, South Africa, where Lt. Helgeson has a position as a consulting geologist.

St. Louis—Robbie, a tan cocker spaniel, fell in love with James Morris, postman, the first time he went on the route past the home of Robbie's owners, Mr. and Mrs. George Blammer. The dog trailed Morris all over his route and any other place he went. Finally, the Blammers locked Robbie up in the back yard, but he put up such a howl every time Morris passed that the Blammers could find one solution to the problem—they gave Robbie to the postman.
