

Baptist Youths' Work Sends Members to Camp

Need any walls washed? Floors scrubbed? Lawns raked? The Youth Fellowship of First Baptist church might solve your problem, with their "Workdays for Christ" project.

Beginning Saturday, the high school young people will repeat last year's program in which they offered their services to the community in return for funds to send some of their members to a Baptist camp for several weeks.

THE GREEN LAKE, Wisconsin camp trains young people in Christian leadership, giving special emphasis to programming for youth groups.

"The young people get valuable training there," said the Rev. Emil

Choirs Give Concert

Bernard Leshley, director of music of Community Congregational church, and the combined four choirs of the church will present an Easteride concert at the church on Sunday afternoon, April 16, at 4 p.m. The public is invited.

Church News Deadline is 5 p.m. on Thursdays.

Unitarian Service To Be Conducted By Young People

After several weeks of preparation, young people of Birmingham Unitarian church will take charge of services at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at Upton school, Royal Oak.

The "Far-B-Tweens" prepared their theme, "The Relationship of Myself to Others," under the guidance of the Rev. Russell L. Lincoln, minister of Birmingham Unitarian church, and the Rev. Walter E. Kellison, minister of Farmington Universalist church.

The youth group consists of members of both churches, and the service was presented at the Farmington church last Sunday.

SPEAKERS ARE Barry Brown, Carole Williams, and Dory Rodgers.

Others participating in the service are Mary Roberts, Margaret Roberts, Peter Loomis, Danny Rodgers, Sandra Kellogg, Sandra Mohje, Jim Silbar and Don Van Doren.

The Rev. Russell L. Lincoln, in advising church members of the service, modestly asserts that "this young people's service is of higher rather than lesser caliber than the others."

Baptist College Sunday To Be Observed This Week

Encouraging young people to prepare for Christian service is the purpose of nationwide Baptist college Sunday to be observed this week at First Baptist church.

Training in the work of the church, or as doctors and laymen who devote themselves to Christian practices in their fields, is the goal we urge," said the Rev. Emil Konitz, minister of First Baptist church.

"We emphasize Christian application to their work, not that they all become ministers and missionaries," Mr. Konitz said. "After all, if we were all preachers, where would the congregation be?"

A group of the church's young people will speak at 7:30 p.m. services Sunday.
