Many Area Residents Attend Ushers Club Dinner Dance

The Berkshires had a good turnout at the Holy Name Ushers club dinner dance last Thursday evening at Oakland Hills country club. Chairman of the affair was James Barbour of Sherwood drive. On his committee were Louis Desmon, John J. Kelley, Roger Blanford, Emerson Goetz, Joe Jutte, Paul Voss and Andy Forester.

Several cocktail parties preceded the dinner, one taking place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelley of Lincoln road. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ray West of Oakland drive, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating of Jackson Park lane, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cruise of 15 Mile road, Mr. and Mrs. James Barbour of Sherwood drive, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Voss and Mr. and Mrs. James King. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmon of Sherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wink of Old Mill road each hosted a cocktail party before the dinner dance. Seen on the dance floor were Mr. and Mrs. James Bostwick of Old Mill road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason also of Old Mill.

Mrs. James Broonan of Middlebury lane and her two daughters returned recently from their winter home at Vero Beach, Fla. Mr. Broonan drove his family down and stayed for the first three weeks and then flew home.

Kathleen was enrolled in school in order to continue her fourth grade studies. Mrs. Broonan played Taking advantage of the children's Easter vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson packed up daughters Debby and Jenni, and warm dogs. A couple of nice warm days were spent at Grand Haven and Muskegon.

While Mr. Henderson took care of business, Mrs. Henderson visited her college roommate in Grand Haven. After five days of sight-seeing and driving along Lake Michigan, that spring urge to travel came to an end—at home on Old Mill road.

In January, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stecher of Fairlane drive, became Berkshires residents. They moved from Detroit and, according to Mrs. Stecher, are truly enjoying the peaceful mood of suburban living. Mr. Stecher is a salesman for Leho Corp. in Detroit and is a men's aid at the Emanuel church in Detroit. He is a horse racing enthusiast. The Stechers entertained relatives for supper on Easter Sunday.

Robert Wink of Old Mill road was elected president of the Holy Name Ushers club at its recent meeting. James Barbour and Louis Desmon, both of Sherwood drive, were elected vice president and treasurer, respectively.

ST. CABBINI GUILD
St. Cabbini's Guild met yesterday noon for its April meeting at the home of Mrs. George Kramb on Chula Vista drive. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Louis Harrison, Mrs. Raymond West and Mrs. Robert Wink.

We apologize for our error of two weeks ago. The article read, Mrs. Harold C. Cunningham of Lincoln drive just returned etc., it should have read, Mrs. Carl E. Schuman of Oakhill drive just returned after a three-week trip to Florida with her daughter, Mrs. William Wheeler of Lincoln Park. They flew down and were guests of Mrs. Schuman's brother and his wife, at their home in Palm Beach. They enjoyed many parties while there and took in all the plays at the Palm Beach Playhouse. Among their favorite actresses, they saw Helen Hayes and Beatrice Lillie perform.

Hostess Group to Complete Plans for Association Dinner

The April meeting of the West Beverly Hostess group will be Tuesday the 17th at the home of Mrs. Hugh Hemphill, 32400 Mayfair lane, with Mrs. William Ross and Mrs. Earl Hope assisting hostesses.

Plans for the association's annual dinner, which will be held at the Community House May 16 will be completed. Tickets will be on sale after the meeting with each block hostess contacting residents on her street.

Birthdays are a cause for celebration in the Hugh Allerton household on Hillcrest for on Saturday, March 21, Mrs. Allerton gave a surprise birthday dinner honoring Hugh's natal day. Guests wishing him a "Happy Birthday" were Dr. and Mrs. James Snider of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Shields, Jr. of Birmingham and Richard Allerton, Hugh's brother from Detroit.

Also coming into the limelight is Susan Allerton who will be one year old April 12, at which time her parents wish to entertain a dinner party for the grandparents of Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allerton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Banwell of Bloomfield Village.

Also present will be Susan's fiancé, Mr. Amos Shields, Jr., and

Cancer Crusade in W. Blm. Tuesday

WEST BLM.—The American Cancer Society's Crusade for Funds and Education will be held in West Bloomfield on Tuesday, April 17, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. House to house volunteers will distribute educational material to and ask for a gift in all homes on that evening.

Mrs. Graham Overgard of Walnut Lake road, Education and Crusade chairman for the West Bloomfield branch of the North Oakland County unit of the American Cancer Society, has organized the drive, and would appreciate any additional assistance from volunteers during these two hours on April 17.

For information on cancer in this community, please call Mrs. Overgard.

Open License Dept. In Lathrup Monday

LATHRUP—Motorists here will be able to get their licenses at the city office after April 16, according to Paul E. David Bourgeois.

On that day and every Monday thereafter, residents will be able to obtain licenses there between 1 and 5 p.m. and 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Each Friday from 2 to 5 p.m. the license bureau will also be open to give beginners and others road tests and licenses Bourgeois added.

Spring Vacation Time Finds Residents Far from Home

Jack E. Quarters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Quarters, 17004 Matoline is spending his spring vacation in California. Jack, a medical student in the Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery, will begin his senior year in May.

He spent several days in Palm Springs with his aunt, Mrs. Florence I. Schulte and now is in North Hollywood visiting his cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Schulte, an attorney with offices in Los Angeles. Jack enjoys swimming in their heated pool and relaxing in the sun.

While there, he has visited several Osteopathic hospitals in Los Angeles, Glendale and Burbank, where he may intern after graduating. He has also visited Disney's Hot Spring, Disneyland, Knotts berry farm, famous for their fine dinners, and Las Vegas, Nev. He will return to Kirksville to resume his studies soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances J. Pauler and daughters Jill and Janice returned to their home on Sheridan after spending the Easter week in Saginaw visiting paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pauler and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Emeott.

Dr. and Mrs. David Collin of Romeo are giving a reception at Kingsley Inn this Sunday afternoon for their daughter Sandra Ann and their son-in-law, Ralph Rae Watts, Jr. Ralph's parents live at 17211 Kirkshire. Sandra Ann and Ralph were married February 4, but did not tell their parents until last week. They returned to their studies at U of M where Sandra is a freshman and Ralph is a junior. Ralph is studying Journalism and is captain of the cheer leading squad. Ralph's sister, Donna Lee spent her Easter vacation with her classmates on the Washington trip.

The highlight of Doug Pearl's Florida vacation trip took place in Georgia. It wasn't the scenery, or an important old building, but it was when he stopped in a city in Georgia and stepped out of the car to see his principal at Beverly school, Malcom Ferguson, and his teacher, Doug remarked that the world is sure a small place.

Doug and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Coblin Heart of Verona Circle spent most of their time lolling in the sun at Daytona Beach, Fort Lauderdale and Miami.

Mrs. Erich O. Kurth of Buckingham road, entertained 20 of her friends Saturday for luncheon after which her guests were shown colored slides, taken on a recent tour of India and the Holy Land by Mrs. Irene A. Tirri of Detroit.
