Historical Sights and Sites Interest Albert Cattell Family

Memories of a trip on the top deck of a coach-and-four sustained the junior members of the Albert Cattell family of Bungalow avenue on their return to school following the Easter vacation.

Patty, Mary and Bill left with their parents on Monday before Easter to visit the battlefields of Gettysburg, and the shrines of Monticello and Mount Vernon. The ride in colonial style took place on the original George Washington farm.

The family renewed its acquaintances with the nation's capital, then proceeded to Williamsburg, Va. Not the least deterred by the recent sking mishap, Patty and the party in a tour of the historical society. They returned the Saturday before Easter.

Second graders at Beverly school are admiring the tan acquired by their teacher Marilyn Rostow during a spring vacation spent in Florida. Miss Rostow visited Ft. Lauderdale and the Andrew S. Gandy family formerly of Lathrup and now owners of Coconut Court.

While Pat Stewart was away on Easter vacation visiting in Chicago, Sharon Fleischer and Barbara Craig had a wonderful time exercising Pat's beautiful chestnut horse "Little Eddie" and she has left her pet in better hands, for she came back to find him glossy and sleek and waiting to be put through his paces.

Betty Reber called the other day and asked us to convey her thanks to all the kind neighbors and friends who sent wonderful food and baked goods to her and the girls recently. Plans and dishes were picked up by Betty and efficiently she was not able to thank each donor personally and therefore asked us to do it for her.

There will be a girl scout neighborhood meeting Monday, April 16, at 1:15 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of Community church, all leaders and committee members are invited to attend. Monday is also the date of the scout skating party at Ambassador rink in Clawson.

The E. F. Lundbergs of Cambridge have just returned from a motor trip to Florida. Traveling via Atlanta where they visited friends, the Lundbergs spent several days in Venice, visiting Cypress Gardens, Marineland and St. Augustine on the way home.

Area Youngsters Participate In Detroit Skating Club Show

With the Detroit Skating Club's show scheduled this Friday, the Wood boys, Ken, Dark, Bob and Tim, along with Dean and Susie Hesberger, had been very busy with rehearsals the past two weeks.

There were costumes to be fitted, a dress rehearsal (this had to be squeezed so as not to conflict with the Red Wings' need for the attention given to numerous pressing details that go with putting on the big show.

Dean Hesberger, who first stood on skates last November, and Susie, who has been skating for too much longer, first learned to sport on the pond in Lone Pine Lake. Dean will be a tough bear, and Susie will be a daffodil gliding in a yellow costume (courtesy of grandmother who ran it up on her sewing machine) with a pert flower jutting from her beard.

The Wood boys are the sons of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood of Mayflower court, Lone Pine Village, and Susie and Dean Hesberger are the children of E. H. Hesberger, Joanne court, Lone Pine Village.

AREA NEWCOMERS

Spring brings newcomers to fill waiting homes and among them are the L. E. Hafstadts of 6263 Lauren court, Bill, who will be 5 in May and attends nursery school.

The Hafstadts, from Washington, D. C., have a pet cat by the name of "Larry" and two dogs, a golden retriever, and Scotty, a collie. These canine friends are still on the 28-acre farm the family has in Maryland. Hafstad is with the research laboratory of General Motors.

Thomas and Charlotte Kuzma have the new home at 3510 New Millerway. Thomas football fans will remember as Tom Kuzma, who played under the University of Michigan's blue and maize back in the '40's.

The Kuzmas have four small halfbacks—Tommy, 7, who attends Vaughan; Peter, 5, in Vaughan; Undermatten; Steve, 4, and Danny, 2. When the mud that surrounds his new suburban home isn't taking all his time, Tom likes to do woodworking. Charlotte is an Ohio

Addison Youth Group Hosted By Lathrup CYF

LATHRUP—Youthful members of the Christian Youth Fellowship organization of Lathrup Community church were hosts over the weekend to 25 members of the senior Pilgrim Fellowship group from United Church Congregational Christian of Addison.

Arriving Saturday noon, the group was greeted with a luncheon served by mothers of the hosts. A get-acquainted song fest led by Bernard Lesley opened the meeting. Address on brotherhood, by Dick Kappler, CYF past president.

A DINNER DANCE was held Saturday evening in the new youth room of the church. Guests spent the night in the homes of young members, and attended the 9:30 worship on Sunday together with the CYF group, led by Mrs. Lester Amisinger.

Dinner was served at 1:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall, followed by a worship service conducted by Jack Rose, son of the pastor, with organ selections by Bernard Lesley accompanied by the choir. Plans for a visit by the Lathrup group to Addison in June were discussed before farewells at 5 o'clock.

THE REVEREND Robert Jacobson of the Addison church, and Mrs. Jacobson accompanied the young people, and the pastor preached at both services on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Lester Amisinger, leader of the Lathrup CYF was assisted by Mrs. John Coup, Mrs. Fred Gudde and Mrs. Charles Suggen as chairman of the 35 mothers serving meals to the group.

Lathrup 6th Graders Are Dancing Tonight

LATHRUP—The auditorium in Lathrup Community church was as a ballroom tonight when sixth grade students held a dance. Mr. W. Branchau, pastor, has instructed the young people in the social graces, will conduct various types of dances.

Sponsors for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. John Gaddis, assistant pastor, Mrs. Helen Kowal and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolzast. Student committee, Kathleen Kronenberg, Mary Ann Gaddis, Fred Bartell and Steve Renton will assist in serving refreshments.

New Residents Bring to Area Children, Dogs and Hobbies

New residents on Eastlady road are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Andrus with Jeanine, 15, Gary, 11, and Sandy, one very small dachshund with plenty of charm.

This household has many and varied hobbies. Gary enjoys sports of all kinds. Jeanine spends many hours with her painting, while Mary Andrus gardens and sews. Gordon spends his spare time working on the hi-fi system he is installing in their new home. The family, formerly of Arlington Heights, Ill., attend Holy Name parish. Gordon is associated with Chevrolet engineering.

Elaine and Tom Wright are newcomers on East Bellville, formerly of Alden Park Manor, St. Louis. Whenever time allows, golf is Tom Wright's hobby, and sewing and selecting furniture for their new home occupies Mrs. Wright's daytime hours. The young couple attends Holy Name church. Mr. Wright is a certified public accountant and partner in the firm of Rotten Welling and Co.

Spring was in the air for sure Sunday when the Valley Woods branch of the WNFG met at the Ford Rotunda. After luncheon at Dearborn Inn, the group met at Flowers Internationale and toured the Rotunda.

Members of the garden club and prospective members were Mrs. Gordon Andrus, Eastlady; Mrs. Fred and Liz Nicholson of Bellville; Mrs. E. F. Weiss, Corsaut lane; Mrs. Murray Forsythe and Mrs. William E. King.

To spend Easter vacation in the hospital is not exactly what a 5-year-old Janice Tomi had in mind when excused from school. Janice, man cross Liz Nicholson up with a low of 66 degrees, this being the lowest temperature in 10 years. On returning for this next week Liz motored to Gulf Isle for 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Thorncast had their nice and near, Constance and Walter Richard, who is a student at Hixdale college, as guests last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Wright of Pon Valley have returned from their Florida trip. They spent one week in St. Petersburg, two in Pompano Beach and then returned home via Washington, D. C.

Recent visitors for the Wrights were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Curtis of Muskegon, Mrs. Robert Kling of Saginaw, Mrs. Mabel Teppie and her son, Darrell, of Flint.

TROOP 31 SCOUTS Mrs. Charles Stevens of Orchard Bend, a new mother for a new group of girl scouts, has had them registered, and they will be known as troop 31.

The scouts include Bettie Lynn James, Janine Leale, Karen McHaldine, Meredith Flaxton, Ann Shaul, Kay Stevens, Margaret Osterling, Norma Alway, Joanne Longley and Mary Lou Simmon.
