George B. Averill
Trout Fishing Is A Great & Noble Outdoor Activity

Perhaps, a few days ago, you read in The Detroit Free Press chuckle that went something like this: 'Three-fourths of the earth's surface is water...'

AND SO IT was a few days ago when three fellow-employees in our office gathered for lunch and spent the better part of their time talking fishing.

ANYWAY, WE three claim to be fair trouters. We believe that we are capable of providing good suggestions for anyone who decides to forsake the use of worms, etc.

IT WAS suggested to him that, for practice, he rig up his trout rod just as though he were about to enter a stream; only he would clip the barbed hook from the fly so that it would not secure itself to anything it was unintentionally tossed into or against.

Split Vote Keeps Parking on Maple

'It's a mistake not to let the street carry all the traffic. It is it could be discussed again—this time in a private committee session.'

COMMISSIONER William Roberts reminded Renfrew that the commission only a few weeks ago agreed to postpone any action on Maple parking until the other city parking lots are in operation.

No Change in 'Pike North of Eight Mile

A final attempt to get four municipalities to approve the Michigan turnpike's route through their communities, rather than have to force it upon them, was announced this week by turnpike authority chairman George Higgins...

THE FOUR municipalities are Detroit, Dearborn, Allen Park and Riverview. Higgins said the route from 8 Mile road north has been finalized, with slight changes only near Flint and Pontiac.

It would be several hundred feet west of Telegraph road until it neared Maple (15 Mile road), where it would swing east to about Telegraph just above Lone Pine road. Here it would cross over Telegraph, go northeast and just nip the northwest corner of Bloomfield Hills on its way to Woodward avenue and around the east side of Pontiac.

RESIDENTS of Franklin Village, Southfield and Bloomfield townships have protested vigorously against the pike going through their areas.

HIGGINS also said: 'The authority has been advised by bond counsel that the existing supreme court decision is sufficient to authorize the authority to determine location without local consent. I hope we won't have to exercise that authority, but unreasonable objections may have to be overcome in that manner.'

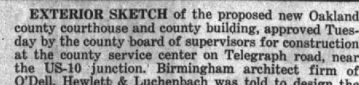

Would Devote Full Time, Says Candidate Beggs
He will be a full time representative of this district, Harvey Beggs of Highland drive, Bloomfield Hills, said in a statement this week.

First to announce he seeks the GOP nomination as third district representative, Beggs, 63, emphasized he could devote all his energies to serving the district. He retired a year ago from his metal finishing business.

A NATIVE of Wisconsin, he held several minor political offices there, including justice of the peace, deputy coroner, city clerk, election and jury commissioners. While a resident of Detroit, he was a preferred candidate of the
