Tea to Honor Patients At Oakland Hospital

To give an opportunity to the men and women (average age, 70) at Oakland County Convalescent hospital, 2200 Telegraph road, to sell their handicraft, a tea will be held at the hospital next Wednesday, from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

Sponsoring the tea is the social service department of the Woman's auxiliary, Christ Church, Cranbrook.

Mrs. Franklyn McDonald, of Overhill drive, is chairman of the department's work with residents of the convalescent hospital and the children's home. She is assisted by Mrs. Gordon Daugharty, of E. Surrey, Bloomfield Hills.

THE TWO ARE also chairmen of the tea to be held on the hospital's sun porch, with residents of the hospital as guests of honor. "It's a big day for all the patients," said Mrs. Adele Davis, of London, who teaches handicraft skills to them.

"Some of the upper floor residents," she said, "make only one trip downstairs each year, when they come down to see the guests at the tea."

Mrs. Davis, a professional worker, or volunteers many hours of her time weekly to teaching the handicrafts which enable patients to earn pocket money to be used throughout the year.

Mrs. B. F. Robeson, of George, assists Mrs. Davis with the instruction.

Officer Candidate Course Completed

Edwin A. Matus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kaiman E. Matus of Aspen road, Birmingham, has been commissioned a second lieutenant at the Marine corps school, Quantico, Va., after completing a ten week officer candidate course.

He is now undergoing five months training in the officers basic school at Quantico, to qualify him for duty as a rifle platoon leader and staff officer.

Kitchen Shower Fetes Miss Darden

The first in a series of pre-nuptial parties planned for Elaine Darden of Lake Orion, was given Saturday in the Detroit Golf Club with Mrs. R. P. Fohey of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Byron A. Carey, Detroit, as co-hostesses.

Thirty guests were present for a pink cloth covered the luncheon table which was decorated with lace over violet satin ribbons and bouquets of violets, stocks, pink daisies and white carnations flanked by pink tapera.

Miss Darden will marry Larry Heitsch of Pontiac on June 23.
