Spring Styles To Be Modeled

Spring fashions will make their bow April 25 at a bridge luncheon and style show sponsored by the Seton guild of St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher home for children. The party, scheduled for 12:30 p.m. is to be held in the LaJouere lounge at the home, and will feature a style parade of spring and summer creations from the Bloomfield Fashion shop.

Proceeds from the luncheon will go toward a building project recently initiated by the guild, that of providing individual shelters for storing large and out of season toys.

MRS. LEO H. WEBER and Mrs. Joseph Solner are serving as co-chairmen of the event. Greeting members and guests will be Mrs. Jerry T. Planigan and Mrs. Harry Rendell.

wood avenue.

Other local choristers are Robert Lauer, Marblehead road, and Katie (Mico) Esterer, Lome Pine road, both of Bloomfield Hills.

Previous performances of the comic opera were in Lydia Mendelsohn theater, Ann Arbor, last week end. Friday night it is being presented at Wyandotte high school.

National Speaker For Kick-Off Series

Birmingham Community House will be the scene of the Oakland County kick-off program April 19 for the Oakland County fund-raising campaign sponsored by Republican Women. Mrs. Brooks Marshall is chairman.

Mrs. Julie B. Kirlin, of Boston, a former member of the Republican National Finance committee and one of the leading fund-raising experts of the Republican Party, will arrive the middle of April to speak at the local and other area kick-off meetings. Mrs. Kirlin is attached to the Republican National Headquarters in Washington for special fund-raising projects by women.

Recently as vice chairman of the Massachusetts Republican finance committee, Mrs. Kirlin exhibited her ability in this field. In 1950 she was instrumental in initiating a Massachusetts state-wide doorbell ringing drive, which netted both an increase in effective party workers and an increase in party funds. In 1953 she was one of the four women who sat on the Republican National Finance committee. She has served as an advisor to the Office of International Trade Fairs in the U. S. Department of Commerce.
