Grand Opening Held At Birmingham Nash

Birmingham Nash, Inc., 666 S. Woodward Ave., celebrated its grand opening Monday. Visitors were greeted by partners William T. Mangan and Des McAlister.

The modern dealership has a three-car showroom and an eight-stall service department. Service manager Paul Schneider said Birmingham Nash has the latest equipment to properly service any make of car.

The company has two used-car lots, with room for 80 automobiles.

"WE WILL offer famed Bonded Select Used Cars, under which used cars in top condition are given a fool-proof guarantee at no extra cost," McAlister said.

Mangan and McAlister have extended a general invitation to all to test drive a 1956 Ambassador, Ambassador Special, Statesman, Rambler or Metropolitan.

They pointed out that each purchaser of a new Nash receives a $25,000 personal automobile accident insurance policy at no extra cost. This is proof of the greater safety built into Nash cars, they added.

ALTHOUGH young, both partners have had wide experience in the automotive field.

Mangan, 25, has been in the auto industry for six years. Starting in a dealership parts department, he worked up to salesman and then sales manager. For the past three years he was sales manager of Bol's Nash, Detroit.

A graduate of St. Mary of Redford he studied at Wayne University for two years. Married and the father of two children Mangan

Water Boxes Being Repaired

Birmingham public works department has launched a program to repair all city water stop boxes; those small metal units set in the lawns at the property line providing access to the valve controlling the flow of water to the house from the main.

Repairs are necessary from time to time to clean out dirt and properly set valves, according to the DPW. Residents are asked to cooperate by reseeding around the box after repairs are completed.
