Distaff Side of Kent McIntyre Family in Rome, Berlin, Athens

The new mailbox by the roadside at 995 Timberlake road, with the lettering Kent McIntyre, is receiving mail these days postmarked from European capitals as the distaff side of the McIntyre family have left for new sights abroad.

Mrs. McIntyre, who will return in July, left two weeks ago for Rome. Jeanne, one of the two McIntyre daughters, is in Athens, Greece, and has been there for some time. Audrey McIntyre is in Berlin studying modern dance. The three travelers left at different times for the continent and will return home one by one later this summer.

Hello and welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wytke who have the After three months in Florida, Mrs. Walter Hill has closed their Ft. Lauderdale home and has returned to Nantucket drive with daughter Nancy and son Patrick.

new home at 740 Oakleigh. The Wytke family are members of the Pine Lake Country club and have one daughter, Carolyn, who attends Bennington college in Vermont. Mr. and Mrs. John Mustang, Jr. have moved into the home at 850 Lone Pine road from Bloomfield Village. Patricia and John have two children Jack, 4, and Owen, 18

Among those returning from recent visits in the south were the John Piccus of North Millerville. John and the boys, Gary and Roger, got in some deep-sea fishing while at Palm Beach. This trio of anglers caught two sailfin, and the one that got away, unfortunately (?), was a barracuda.

The Ed Hollenbecks of Snowshoe circle got in lots of sun, three weeks, in fact. Their deep-sea fishing was done at Pompano Beach and Lauderdale-by-the-Sea. The Hollenbecks, arriving home last week, stopped off in Cincinnati for a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aten with son, Bobby of Quanton road, returned last week after ten days in St. Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayes of Lane Lake drive are home after a two-week stay in Bellaire, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nason, formerly of Birmingham, drove in from Titusville to spend some time with the Florida visitors.

Down to the Sugar Bowl jubilee held at Masonic Temple, Mrs. Edward Comer and Mrs. Howard Kahl of South Millerville, attending the show recently given for those who participated in the Torch Drive.

Designer Lilly Duché talked on the Melvindale Women's club, spoke to the group on precious stones and jewelry making.

The Charles Bays of Quanton road were recently at Fort Austin with Neil and Ginny Bays of Guilford road, busy with a heartening endeavor—readying their summer cottage.

Michigan is one state that has never been short of electric power. Nine electric utility companies blanket the state—and their capacity to produce electricity keeps well ahead of demand.
