Audience to Determine Ending of BHS Play

The audience will determine the ending of Birmingham high school's spring play slated for tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the school gym.

Guilty or not guilty is the question in the mystery, "The Night of January 13," and a twelve-man jury selected from the audience will decide the matter.

The actors have two endings ready for the show, depending on how the jury decides.

AS THEY ENTER the gym, the players will be asked if they would be willing to do jury duty. Twelve of the volunteers will be chosen at random to join in the show when the trial begins.

It will be "theatre in three quarters," according to faculty director Angelo Angelico.

Student director is Claire DeNatale who also has a part in the production.

OTHER PARTS ARE being taken by Renee Mouthrop, Dave Parisi, Bob Horner, Dave Dixon, Carol Weston, Bruce Terry, Susie Hinde, Bill Fall, Pat Ross, F. J. McGinnis and Sue Rollett.

Other actors are Mike Patterson, Dick Sneed, Mary Alice Thurber, Linda Kohhof, Dick Griffith, Sue Ketchum, Peter Loomis, John Bond, Anne Lawrence, Andy Hawley, Dick McHugh and Don Laird.

Dave Phillips is production manager. Committee chairmen are Marnie Wesch, prop; Katy Biggo, make-up; Ken Hogan, ticket sales; Andy Hawley, programs; Mary Louise Smith, publicity; Don Charf, scenery and sets, and Bob Omtevit, lights.

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Barnum's second talent show assembly was put on for the students Thursday. A third assembly for other acts is being planned. A public performance will be held on Friday, April 27 at 8 p.m.

Miss Majel Brette, Barnum's class music teacher, introduced the assembly. Mary Cook did an Irish jig. Then came a flute duet with Barb Summers and Mary Richardson and a clarinet trio with Phil Mack, Marge Stettbacher and Paul Simmons.

A dance was done by Lynn Zerby, Elaine Ichonberry, Peggy Sloan, and Ann Froberg. Peter Kempel pantomimed to a record. Karen Rogers gave a dramatic skit and Julie Miller, Chris Walker, Sue Schaefer and Karen Bennett danced. A pantomime to a record was done by Janet Marrocco and Kitty Hinman.

Another flute trio, with Jan Gobeckie, Margaret Chamberlain, and Carolyn Schwimmer played, and Karen Bender did a character dance. A solo was sung by Marilyn Collins; and last Jim Rhuely did a dramatic skit.

The Barnum auto club met Wednesday.

President Harden De View showed a display of model cars he has been working on in his spare time.

After the business meeting members went to work on club projects which include making and designing model cars and studying automobiles.

Southfield High Notes

Southfield High club sponsors the assembly to be held tomorrow that the entire school may enjoy the humorous readings which are part of the regional forensics contest.

Students will hear Ellen Lewis read "Love's Labor Lost," Suzie Mairs, "My Financial Career," Hyman Kaplan, "The Education of Speech Judges," "Singing, Spring," Joanne Bromley, "Spring, Spring," and Clarkston, Troy, Bentley, Brighton, Holly, Walled Lake, Utica and Southfield.

At the contest, Joanne Bromley will represent Southfield in the humorous reading classification, while Barbara Pierce will do an interpretative reading.

Each contestant will receive a Detroit News dictionary, and winning schools will receive a wall banner.

Approximately 55 Spanish students accompanied by their instructor, Miss Virginia Hammond, attended the University of Michigan Spanish Fiesta last Saturday.

Touring the campus, the students visited the language laboratory of the university which is set up with sound units and recorded lessons, and a display featuring the arts of Spanish-speaking countries.

Cranbrook School Paper Wins Award For Excellence

By KEN CAMERON

The Cranbrook school paper, the Crane, was given a first place award by the Columbia Scholastic Press association for excellence in journalism at high school level. This is the first time in four years the Crane has won a first place year.

On Friday, April 27, the Crane will be put out by juniors in preparation for next year. Walter Bagdad will be the first junior editor.

H. D. Hoey, headmaster of Cranbrook, H. M. Wert, president of the Cranbrook chapter of the Cum Laude society, and C. G. Wonnberger, secretary of the Cranbrook chapter, attended a meeting at Grosse Pointe high Friday.

Fifteen Cranbrook students with several journalistic averages also went. Professor Ross of Wayne University spoke on the necessity of liberal education. A short play done in Latin was also presented to the amusement of all.

1st BHHS Girls' Golf Team Named

The senior class of Bloomfield Hills high school left Tuesday afternoon on their class trip to Washington.

On the first BHHS girls' golf team are Anne Hammond, Sue Swartz, Betsy Arnoldi, Judi Bromley, Gretchen Raeder, Sue Boyd and Carol Brodie.

New cheerleaders chosen for the 1956-1957 season are Jane Caria, Judy Sanders, Sue Boyd, Babs Blakeman, Barbie Van Dyke, and Diane Almon.

G. A. sports now being played are archery, badminton, softball, and cotton ball golf. Archery, which just started this week, will be played every Thursday, along with cotton ball golf.

The high school girls' softball team has been chosen recently.
