

Local Marygrove College Students In Family Fiesta

Two Birmingham girls will help take an audience back to the flapper era tonight as members of the floor show for the annual "family fiesta," April 28, at Marygrove college in Detroit. They are Margaret Soma, 18215 Kirkshire and Sheila O'Leary, 16079 Birchwood drive, both freshmen at the college.

An annual affair, the carnival type fiesta is an all-school fund raising project to support scholarships for fellow-students. Novelty booths, a dance and refreshments are included in the evening of activities.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Troyton Manor Homeowners Hold Second Social Gathering

Second social event enjoyed by Troyton Manor Homeowners' association members was held Friday evening at Pembroke school. The evening had a good start with coffee and dessert, served by members of the social committee, after which attending couples played various card games.

There were tables of canasta, pinochle, and bridge with potted house plants for prizes. Winners were Jack Distler, Bill McElhinney, Chuck Hooker and Kay Nelson for bridge; Bill Morgan; Rita Moonley, Mike and Jo Thomas for pinochle; Barbara Wilson and Fred Spatz for canasta.

Those in charge of the event were Jane Otto, Mary Eckstein and Barbara Shultz and Lois Cleary. About 35 couples attended.

PACK MEETING
B-23 Cub Scouts held their regular monthly pack meeting Monday, April 23 in Pembroke school. Wolf badges were awarded to Michael Castle, David Eberlinger, William Kuehl, Philip May, Thomas de Mulhern, and Robert Seabich.

Bear badges went to Larry Benford, Harry Castle, Donald Crawford, Robert Hamerick and Robert Swanson.

Charles Atkin received his lion badge. Thirty-seven arrow points were presented in various ranks of cubbing by cubmaster Ronald Rapp.

Boys of den 6 with the help of den mother, Mrs. Walter Lindow, presented an original comedy, "The Case of the Hanging Hangnail!" An old fashioned song-fest was planned by den 5 for the second part of the program. Although the tunes were familiar, very few present had heard the cub lyrics, so mimeographed song sheets were distributed.

Recent field trips have been varied and interesting. Mrs. Owen Davis took den 1 to the new Adams fire station where they learned some of the fireman's duties.

Den 2 Webelos went to Belle Isle and also visited the Detroit Historical museum. Mrs. William Rapp escorted den 3 boys bowling where lack of skill was made up by enthusiasm. Forties Motors was toured by Dens 10, 11 and 12.

Mrs. Palmer Pratt, den 5, and Mrs. John Middleman, den 5, each took her group to Cranbrook institute. Mrs. R. W. Swanson reports that boys of den 4 have been busy on handicraft projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Dran and son Robert, 3, are moving today from their apartment at 1990 Graefield road to their new home, 6222 Lahner road. The family came to Birmingham from Kansas City, Mo., about a year ago. Mrs. Dran is chief draft-man at General Motors truck and coach division.

Birmingham Seniors In Geography Day At Detroit College

Jerine Stark, Puritan avenue, Birmingham, and Delphine Zielinski, Plumwood lane, Southfield, both seniors participated Wednesday in Detroit Commercial college's all day program titled "Geography Day."

Miss Stark presented a report and sponsored an exhibit featuring the state of Massachusetts and Miss Zielinski's presentation was on the state of South Carolina. In the afternoon session, John Knott narrated a travelogue, "The Northwest Empire."

Students had the cooperation of various chambers of commerce, civic and state organizations. Their exhibits were viewed by parents, students, educators and businessmen.
