Area Welcomes Two New Families

Newcomers to Valley Woods are former Detroiters, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMaster and family on Bellvine Trail. Son Tim, nineteen, just seven weeks ago left for the Navy, but plans to return to the University of Detroit after his Navy hitch.

Bill, 17, is a senior at Cathedral Central, Linda, 15, attends Birmingham high school, Pam, 10, and Sandy, 7, attend Holy Name. Mr. McMaster is president of the Arrow Liquors Corp. The McMasters are members of a "Plymouth hollow golf club and spend as much time as possible golfing. Mrs. McMaster bowls in winter.

Helen and Charles Master and family, formerly of Dearborn, are new residents on Plumwood lane. Emery, 12, and David, 11, attend Beverly school. Helen Master is pleased over Mr. Master's hobby gardening because of all the work needed on the grounds surrounding their new home. Mr. Master is supervisor in production engineering activity at Fisher Body.

The John Tesmaras of Eastlady attended a family supper party in Grosse Pointe Woods in honor of Mrs. Tesmar's father, who retired from Timken Axle after 20 years service. After being presented with a watch from the plant, the honor-guest was taken by surprise with the extra celebration and gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nylund of Eastlady road entertained the Robert Kerr, Jr. family of Grosse Pointe Sunday afternoon at dinner. Francis and Robbie Kerr spent a pleasant afternoon with the Nylund children, Peggy and John.

Mrs. John Buckley of Bellvine trail returned from California to pack their things for their new home on the coast. Friday she was taken to St. Johns hospital in Grosse Pointe Woods for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Foley and children, Dennis, 13, and Christine,

Mrs. George Kramb Opens Home for Charity Card Party

Last evening Mrs. George Kramb opened her Chula Vista home for a charity card party. She and her cousin, Mrs. L. D. Bellinger of Magnolia, donated food, table presents and much hard work for the benefit of retarded children in a Hazel Park school.

Several Birmingham businesses made donations and 56 ladies were present. Yellow candles and dewy fresh daffodils were springlike decorations on the buffet table when Mrs. Robert Reason entertained her bridge club last Thursday evening.

Club members gathering for the evening on Old Mill road were Mrs. Don Borgeson, Mrs. Hira Anderson, Mrs. Robert Charlton, Mrs. Jack Butler, Mrs. Bruce Charneworth, Mrs. Daniel Pino, Mrs. Harry Phelps and Mrs. Robert Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Roskilly have been entertaining house guests in their Wedgewood drive home. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Drago, former Detroiters now of Racine, Wis., spent a few days with the Roskillys. During their stay was spent renewing old friendships. Mr. and Mrs. Karl Klesner of Buffalo, N. Y., spent several days last week with the Roskillys on their way to their former home in Flint.

Debbi Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson of Old Mill road, made her first communion Sunday at Holy Name church. After mass, breakfast was served, buffet style, at the Hendersons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stephen of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson of Ann Arbor were present. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Raymond of Lahser road, her aunt and uncle, and cousin Ticky, and Debbi's great aunt, Mrs. Harriette Seares of Grosse Pointe were guests.

Mrs. H. T. Brian and daughter Barbara of Lincoln drive flew to Birmingham for two weeks. Mr. Brian joined them after completing business in Atlanta, Ga., and his stay was a combination of business and pleasure.

They were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Perry and daughter Carolyn. The Brian's are former Kansas City residents, so many parties were given in their honor. Barbara had a wonderful time visiting her old high school and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Brian were driven to friend Paul Burke's home in Grand Lake, Okla. for a three-day stay. The weather permitted them to do a great deal of fishing.
