Lathrup Couples Sail May 2 For Seven Weeks in Europe

Seven weeks in Europe to be climaxed by an audience with the Pope in the Holy City is the exciting prospect facing the John J. Pauluses of Rainbow drive and Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Gorley of Lathrup.

Pausing briefly in New York to see Gladys Colbert in "Irene," and revisit the Tokyo Suki-Yaki house, the couples will sail May 2 on the Queen Elizabeth.

They will visit England, France, Germany and the Low Countries before going to Italy for their important date. Returning through Switzerland and home via the Queen Mary, they will have a final week of shopping and play-going.

Mrs. Harry E. Hoffmann of Rainbow Circle was hostess at a family dinner last week at the Detroit Athletic club to announce the engagement of her daughter, Mary Ellen, to James Joseph Whelan of Shaker Heights, Ohio. Miss Hoffmann is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy, and her fiancé attended John Carroll University in Cleveland. The couple plan to be married in the fall.

Scarlet pigtails in the mail were a summons to a "sakes and hermoder" party at the home of Robin Jay, daughter of the Dick Jays of Eldorado Friday evening. Dancing, card games and refreshments entertained Bonnie Higgins, Janice Christensen, Judy Humberowski, Shelley Erbacher, Jerry and Terry Odum, Gary Hamman, Tim Stapleton and Bill Mikulas. The Jay family moved to the Village last December from Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben V. Cole, 19063 Coral Gables left Saturday to attend the Michigan Life Insurance of N. Y. convention at Colorado Springs. Cole, a member of the company honor club, has won his trip to the convention through high standards of production and service requirements. Besides attending the convention, the Coles will visit Boys' Town, and points of interest in the west.

The John Chokwast of Eldorado were happy to say "it's a girl!" when Susan Elizabeth arrived at the

Ancient Mariners To Install New Officers Friday

LATHRUP—The Ancient Mariners will meet for dinner on Friday evening at Community church. Newly elected officers installed will be Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mayson, president; Mr. and Mrs. George Brush, vice-president; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rich, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, treasurer. Mrs. James Kimberly, chairman of a dinner to be assisted by the William Arvasons.

Twenty-eight members of the C.Y.F. group of Community church will attend a senior fellowship rally and dinner Sunday at the Grose Point Congregational church. The Junior J-H's will be guests at a similar rally at Boulevard Congregational church the same afternoon.

Mrs. Helen Bunnell, wife of the pastor of the Hudson Congregational church, will preside at the installation of new officers of the Women's Association of Community Church at a dinner this evening.

New officers are Mrs. George Harden, president; Mrs. David R. Blair, first vice president; Mrs. Paul Hunsicker, second vice president; Mrs. William Donnelly, treasurer; Mrs. Melvin Humphrey, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Bulher, corresponding secretary; and chairman Mrs. Charles A. Herr, membership. Mrs. Albert Cattell, honor, publicity; and Mrs. Gerald Wicks and Mrs. Fred Gould, fair.

Two hundred trucking lines in Michigan carry industrial products wherever there's a highway, making it possible for a small manufacturer to set up his plant almost anywhere he wants.

plane trip back to San Francisco was "smooth as silk."

Being welcomed home this week are the R. J. Gannons of San Diego, who returned Sunday after three weeks spent soaking up sunshine near St. Petersburg, Fla.

Gardners don't forget to place your order for plants with Mrs. George Sevek, 18205 Whitshire. Mrs. Sevek and members of the St. Francis Guild of St. Bede will be taking orders from now until May 27 for any quantity you wish to order.

Eugene Juhrend Family Returns from Illinois Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Juhrend of Kirkshire road have returned from Sycamore, Ill., where they took their three children to visit both sets of grandparents and had the opportunity of enjoying an early spring with tulips in bloom and trees beginning to leaf out.

While Mr. T. L. Pritchett of Northcote had to travel south on a business trip, Mrs. Pritchett accompanied him as far as Tampa and Jacksonville, Fla., where she visited many friends they knew as former Jacksonville residents.

Suzanne Hale has returned to her home at Boyne City after spending five days with her aunt and uncle, the Harry Hyvonen of Mayfair lane.

The current weeks are busy ones for Betty Hyvonen of Mayfair. May 5, she will board KLM's Royal Dutch airliner for a 30-day European tour. She will visit seven countries and six cities of Rome, Capri, Venice, Vienna and London.

Transportation methods in the European countries are varied and Betty will travel by train, motor coach, private cars, planes and also a boat trip down the Rhine.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deal, 18275 Birwood entertained a buffet in their home for 25 salesmen and their wives from the Pontiac branch of the Mills Baking plant. The music and dancing were enjoyed by the group.

Among local residents attending the Michigan State Dental Society's President's Ball, April 17, Dr. and Mrs. Will White of Hillcrest road, also attended the banquet the next night at the Raso Hotel.

While the Dental Society held its convalesce, the University of Detroit alumni met and elected Dr. White as president for the coming year.

To celebrate Master Bonny White's fourth birthday, a family dinner party was held Saturday and Mrs. Christine, who reached her tenth milestone Wednesday will host 14 of her young friends Saturday at home next Saturday.

Guests will be Gay DeRoiser, Joanyn and the girls, Maurer, Michelle Grenier, Pat Kille, Nancy Semann, Lynne Fortuna, Karen Simms, Diane Horton, Holly Harrington, Catherine Shields and Kathie Curry.

Beverly Artesian Association Completes Plans for Dance

Plans are completed for the Beverly Artesian Improvement association spring dance in May and according to Mrs. Alan Campbell, members are planning a bigger and better party than the association's first dance held last fall.

An invitational affair, the dance will be held Saturday May 27 at the hall on 12 Mile and Rochester road and members will be singing, dancing and enjoying the music of a five piece orchestra from Detroit.

Silvester Almonre and Charles Almonre are in charge of refreshments; Mrs. William Gortman and Richard Blackhall, decorators; and Mrs. Alan Campbell, tickets.

Residents are still returning from vacations. Mrs. Emma Tomaker, 16232 Lauderdale, is home after a nine week vacation visiting relatives and friends in San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and many smaller cities in between.

This Saturday she is expecting her son and wife from Lansing to spend the day with her. Mr. and Mrs. Art Lafoon, 32255 Arlington, returned by plane Thursday from Naples, Fla. after spending three weeks there. They visited Miami and also were spectators at ball games in Sarasota.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McConkie of Buckingham returned last weekend after a vacation in Daytona Beach. Sons, Richie and Donnie, stayed home with their grandparents while mother and dad were on vacation.

Mrs. Bill Simpson of Arlington will entertain her bridge club Tuesday evening at her home on Roseland. Guests were Mrs. Carl Pallas, Mrs. Sam Bela, Mrs. John Clemens, Mrs. Melvin Pearl, Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Floyd Reynolds and Mrs. Donald McConkie.

NEW ARRIVALS
Mr. and Mrs. James Blondo, 16296 Beverly, and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Rye, 16230 Lauderdale announce the births of sons, both born at William Beaumont hospital. Robert Dominic Blondo, born March 20, weighed 7 lbs. 3 oz. The Blondos have four other children, James 13, Beverly Ann, 9, Lucia, 4 and Theresa, 2. Jonathan Peter Rye, born March 11, weighed in at 8 lbs. 7 oz. He is the Rye's first son and has a sister, Arlene, 10.

This evening, Mrs. Lawrence Matthew, 16250 Amherst will entertain Amherst and Lauderdale neighbors for dessert and a social evening. Nineteen guests have been invited.

Lathrup Students To Hold Paper Drive for Nursery

LATHRUP—After two successful paper drives to raise funds to purchase equipment for their own school Lathrup children are going to stage a paper drive Tuesday, May 1 for the benefit of the Lathrup Day Nursery.

Although the nursery has plenty of space for outdoor activities, it is sadly lacking in funds for play equipment. With the help of the Lathrup school children, and the entire neighborhood, the proceeds from the drive will help towards the purchase of the needed equipment.

A truck will be parked at the school all day May 1 to pick up papers.

Lathrup teachers and students are preparing an open house May 8. On hand to demonstrate the work they are doing with students will be special teachers, Mildred Bechar, speech; Sally Lenington, art; Jo Connor, music and Nina Mitchell, librarian.

Students in grades 4-7 are working on poppy contest posters for the VFW. Teachers are preparing special units of study for Michigan week, and bulletin boards will feature Michigan information. The school reports sales totaling $350 for seeds sold to the children. Profits will be spent for audio visual aids and playground equipment. With plenty of water being promised for this summer and if all those seeds grow, Lathrup will be a garden spot.
