

Students Tell Dessert Bridges To Help YMCA Meet Assessment

So that students thinking of enrolling at Skidmore college at Saratoga, N. Y., may learn more of their future alma mater, local alumnae banded together last Thursday for a gab fest.

Invited to the event were students now attending the Eastern school, so that first hand details of campus life could be given the girls who have indicated Skidmore intentions.

Area students include Elizabeth Kirk of Adams road, Josephine Rothman of Linden road, Sally Blanchard of Lone Pine, Sylvia Chalk of Big Beaver and Denise Robins of Pontiac Trail.

Interested students invited were Jerry Ann Carter of Lone Pine road, Linda Whiting Johnson of Flint, Elizabeth Ellen VanDusen of Bennington drive, Linda Myers, and Ann Goughlin, both of Bloomfield Hills, all Kingswood students; Drew Ann Elliott of St. Mary's Academy; Paula Strunk and Nancy Beier, of Birmingham high school. Other students were from Detroit and Grosse Pointe.

Mothers and the girls were entertained at the home of Mrs. George W. McCormick, Jr., 1633 Quorton road, Bloomfield township.

To help Birmingham's YMCA meet an assessment of $1800 for paving Edgewood on the west side of its property, a group of female "Y" supporters have organized a benefit dessert bridge party. Funds earned from the three-session affair will help to meet the large financial load necessitated. The unusual expense is not provided for in the YMCA's operating budget, according to Mrs. Robert W. Lotz, publicity chairman for the party-givers.

PARTIES WILL be held Monday, April 16, at 1 and 8 p.m., with a third party scheduled at 1 p.m.

Wednesday, April 18, at the YMCA building, 400 E. Lincoln. There will be prizes. Arrangements are under general chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Richards and Mrs. Charles Thurston, both teachers in the YMCA morning nursery school.

Tickets are on a donation basis. Further information may be obtained from committee chairman or by phoning the YMCA.

Girl Scouts Are Planning 'My Troop Day'

On Tuesday, March 27 Mrs. James Keene, Birmingham district chairman of the Southern Oakland Girl Scout council, had a meeting of the district events committee at her home on Evergreen road.

Next event will be "my troop day" April 21, to which the public is invited. That day the whole Community house will be taken over by the Birmingham girl scouts from 1 to 5 p.m. Participation is voluntary but many troops will display projects which they have made during the year.

THIS YEAR the American theme of the senior round-up (to be held at Highland state park recreation area June 29 through July 10 for 5000 senior scouts from all over the country) is the theme for the local event. Most troops are preparing displays along those lines.

There will be camping exhibits and displays concerning program and organization, arranged by members of these committees of SOGS.

MRS. SCOTT PURVIS is making a replica of Juliette Low's birthplace in Savannah, Ga. which is being restored by donations and the sale of "Daisies." All may contribute by picking a "daisy" from the front yard of the model and dropping a coin down the chimney.

Mrs. John Shenafeld of the needlework guild will have a display of articles made by the girls for the JR Needlework guild. Some of these will be modeled by the girls.

GIRL SCOUT movies will be shown during the afternoon.

Mrs. V. G. DeKubinyi is chairman of "my troop day" and will be assisted by Mrs. John Pietach, reservations; Mrs. Myron Zbudowski, posters; Mrs. Donald Parry; Mrs. Frank Russell; Mrs. James Hall; Mrs. Edward Maxson and Mrs. William Jacobs.
