

Varied Program For Wednesday's Sugar Bowl Party

Mrs. J. Hawley Otis of Bloomfield Hills, residential chairman for the 11th annual Sugar Bowl, Franklin territory, requests that all torch drive volunteers send in their applications for reservations to the sugar bowl jubilee to be held in Masonic temple Wednesday.

Honoring more than 20,000 women in Detroit's metropolitan area, the jubilee will present a varied program. It is being staged by the United Foundation Women's organization.

LILLY CACHE, New York hat designer and giasior expert, will headline the program. She will disclose secrets on how the passage of years can add to the attractiveness and personality of a woman.

Dorothy Sarnoff, star of "The King and I" will sing. The General Motors choir will also provide music.

Principal address of the jubilee will be delivered by Dr. Lester Coleman, New York eye, nose, and throat specialist.

THE SUGAR BOWL, a rare piece of Irish Belleek (see picture, section 4, page 1), is awarded each year to the winner of fund-raising competition between suburban and Detroit workers. Current year, it is held by the suburban women and is on display this week at Northland center.
