Village Youngsters Spend Spring Vacation in Florida

The Easter bunny had to travel far and wide to locate some of the Village children. Ellinor village near Ormond Beach, Fla. must have been one of his "hops."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bratton and daughters, Marilyn, Judy, Virginia and Barbara, left last week for this popular resort where they have taken a house on the beach for the next two weeks.

It will not only provide the children a chance to swim and enjoy the sun, but enable them to visit their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Venable Johnson, living at nearby Riviera hotel.

The Julian-Wilsons of Waddington road left by car with their three children for Ellinor village where they, too, expect to spend the next several weeks.

The Charles H. Hunttons of Wiliamsburg and their daughter Virginia have been vacationing in the same popular place for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Cowin and their three children of Half Moon road drove to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to spend their Easter vacation.

Miss Sherry Marker of Waddington road, a poised young lady of 14 and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Marker, traveled by plane to Hollywood, Fla., for her spring vacation from Kingswood. Sherry was met by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McSherry of South Bend, Ind., with whom she will stay while visiting in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Stewart and family of Waddington road, are traveling to Vandergrift, Pa.

Wenzel, Lieut. Wenzel, a member of the regular army infantry has been on a three-week leave before reporting to his new assignment in Germany, where he will be stationed for the next three years.

Mrs. Leo Wenzel of Rochester, Mich. spent the Easter weekend with the Gormans to be with her son before he left for abroad.

A cocktail party was given in Lieut. Wenzel's honor while he was a houseguest of the Gormans.

Mr. and Mrs. John McBrien have moved into their new home at 3270 Morningview Terrace. Mr. McBrien is affiliated with General Motors; Mrs. McBrien is a member of the AAUW and National Pary and Garden club. Ann, a Cornell sophomore is now home, spending her Spring vacation; and Lucy is a sophomore at Birmingham high school.
