A PRIZE WINNER!

IT TAKES YEARS

Yes, indeed, many years of training in the real estate business and in the community concerned before real estate salesmen or brokers are really well equipped to estimate the current market price of your property. Nothing can be more important to any seller than a correct market figure when he wishes to sell.

Our personnel, in the main, has more years of training, experience, and direction than most offices in order to properly represent you. In the sale or purchase of a home, the talents of a good real estate representative are altogether of primary importance. Don't place yourself, as an owner or buyer, in the hands of a novice or newcomer or with anyone of only mediocre competency. Find out how long your agent has operated in your immediate area.

THE MOST SURPRISING HOME IN WEST BEVERLY HILLS

NESTLED in the secluded heart of beautiful West Beverly Hills, yet only a minute from Southfield and Fourteen Mile and within easy walking distance of ultra-modern Beverly School, you'll find this truly remarkable home custom-built in 1950. If you're seeking a roomy house, your first impulse would be to pass it by. From the street it looks charming but deceptively modest in size.

But as you step inside, you'll exclaim in surprise (visitors always do!) The first thing you see is the big 21 x 15.3 living room with its handsome raised-hearth marble fireplace. A roomy 13 x 13 dining ell makes the living room look even larger. And to add to the spacious effect, the entire end of the dining area is a traverse-curtained window wall which looks onto a lovely 14 x 12.3 glassed-in porch.

Next surprise: the much bigger — than usual 14 x 13 pine-paneled library, complete with vinyl-tiled floor, built-in desk, bookshelves and magazine racks. (It houses both TV and big piano with plenty of room to spare). Now comes the feature so hard to find in a two-story house: a cozy bedroom and full-sized stall shower bath on the first floor! And finally, a beautifully light and airy kitchen with ample breakfast area, lots of knotty-pine cabinet space, dishwasher and disposer.

On the carpeted stairs, you'll find two amazingly big bedrooms — 15.6 x 12 and 18.8 x 12. The children's bedroom has two built-in desks and a whole wall of cabinets and shelves for toys and books. The master bedroom has a built-in vanity and a huge window; both rooms have big, double-door closets. And of course there's a roomy tiled bath, too.

And now for the nicest surprise of all: step into the basement and you're in New Orleans! The most charmingly different recreation room you ever saw, with colorful brick-papered walls punctuated by clever simulated louvered doors "looking out" on actual New Orleans street scenes. There's an attractive bar and an excellent built-in Hi-Fi system that plays upstairs, too! This atmosphere-packed 19 x 30 entertainment center alone will make you the envy of your friends — and it's only half the basement! The huge 30 x 30 furnace room has space to spare for washer, dryer, deep freeze, storage and hobbies. And the entire basement is dry as a bone — warm in winter and delightfully cool in summer.

There's a two-car garage, of course, and an 85 x 130 well-landscaped lot that's simply large but no chore to maintain. The house is newly painted and tastefully decorated. Carpets, draperies, porch shades, storm sash and aluminum screens — everything ready for you to move in! You must see all of this outstanding home to realize what a buy it is. We don't know of another in the Birmingham area which offers so much downright good living for $39,500
