Daniel W. Ebbings Return From Honolulu Vacation

Seven weeks of traveling, climaxed with a 10-day stay in Honolulu leaves the Daniel W. Ebbings, of Eastmoor road in the Braes of Bloomfield, with beautiful memories for day dreaming.

Leaving here Jan. 29, they drove to Memphis, then on to Shreveport, where they spent some time with friends. From there they drove to Houston, El Paso and Los Angeles. Again friends greeted them, and after a short visit they drove to San Francisco, taking of points for their flight to the islands.

During their stay in Honolulu they rented a car for tour of the island, including the sugar cane and pineapple plantations. They embarked on the Lurline for the lovely cruise back to San Francisco.

Picking up their car, they took the southern route home because of the rumor of snow slides, visiting in Colorado Springs and King's Canyon.

Arriving back in Birmingham greeted by a driving snow storm and the glad welcome of their four offspring, who had stayed home under the watchful eye of their grandmother.

COLLEGE SET RELAXES

Relaxing at home during Easter vacation are some of our college crowd. Beverly Nichols is trying to catch up on required reading for one of her courses.

Sandra Chamberlin, a January Royal Oak high school graduate, is now enrolled in Highland Park College. Others are Nancy Button, home from her senior year at Albion college, Raymond Ebbings, Tom Maud, Barbara Dunn and Sandra Overgard from Wayne university and Yvonne Youngtong from Wooster college in Ohio.

She Sloat began her vacation from Bowling Green university March 28 with a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Edith Sloat, at Marion, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Sloat drove to Marion for Easter and brought home with them. She returned to school yesterday where she is in her sophomore year.

Beverly Negri, home from the University of Michigan, has just been initiated into Kappa Alpha Theta sorority there. Last Saturday she joined a group of last June's graduates of the high school at the Birmingham home of Bob Stahl for a gay party and discussion of college experiences. She will miss seeing sister Carole, away on the Washington trip this week.

Louisa Roberts arrived home late Easter Sunday from her Reserve university in Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts of Lakeshire drive are planning on driving her back Friday, visiting in Sunday and Sherrill until Sunday.

Jim Voorheis, of West Maple road is spending his vacation from Michigan State university on USO tour of army camps in Michigan and Indiana as an accompanist for the dance team of Terry Gerard and Karen Olson of the college. Also on the tour are the Spartan Bell Ringers and Jan Somers, former Miss Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Norburg-Bleigh of Suncrest drive are happily busy these days with the latest member of their family, Lance Calen. Their second son was born March 20 at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac, weighing in at 6 pounds, 1 ounce. The Bleighs moved to the Suncrest drive address about a year ago.

The John P. Bulls, of West Dartmoor road, Bloomfield Farms, are celebrating the arrival of their

Ellen Schreiber Wins High Academic Award at University of Michigan

Ellen Schreiber, daughter of the Herbert G. Schreibers, Sunnybrook, had the honor of winning the Oregon E. Scott freshman award at the University of Michigan where she is a student.

It is given for academic performance during the first semester for campus to the top 10 percent of the freshman class. The prize is a book with the U of M seal in gold and an appropriate book plate.

Presentation will be made at a convocation to be held in the ballroom of the Michigan Union on May 11.

Meeting every Saturday at 12:30 p.m., the Lathrup junior bowling team has 27 regular members divided into six teams. Bob Naylor holds honors at present for high single game of 236 and a 518 for high three games. Leading the girls in the league, Lois Dahlman has racked a 178 for high single and a 480 for high three games.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lupone of 1322 Sunnybrook announce the birth of a son, David Paul, on March 23, at St. Joseph hospital, weighing 6 lbs., 5 1/2 oz.

FAMILY GATHERING

Man's proud grandparent is checking the house for bursting scamps after Easter Sunday family gatherings. Leading the list are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Brisebois who entertained their two sons and daughter and their families.

From a family once numbering 16, the Brisebois clan now counts 16, for there are eight little grandchildren who look forward each year to an annual easter egg hunt around the house and grounds and dinner at grandma's.

FLORIDA VACATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Peter W. Salmen, Morningside Plaza, drove to Sarasota Feb. 13 for a vacation of a week. Fishing and shopping. They visited son Peter, a senior at the Kentucky Military Institute, located in Venice near Sarasota during the winter months. Peter's school is near to Lyndon, Ky. in the spring.
