19 Year Old Sally Sharp Is 54 Hole Tourney Winner

Sally Sharp's name will be among those inscribed on the Beatrice Caldwell trophy as the results of her winning the 54-hole medal tournament last week at Forest Lake Country club. Sally played off with Bernice Boyd in the three-day event.

The 19-year-old blond started golfing at five and has many winnings to her credit. The five foot six inch winner has a club handicap of three and a district handicap of two. Last year she was runner up in the state and district championship to Wilf Smith. LAST MONTH Sally won the amateur championship at Muskegon. She was "Fine Lake club's" "champ" for three years, won the champion of champions tournament in 1954, junior district winner in 1952 and was runner up in the SALLY SHARP admires the Beatrice Caldwell trophy which has been added to her winning since the conclusion of her three day workout last week.

DEMONSTRATING her long drive is Linda LaMarre, 257 Tibbury, Bloomfield township, and standing by is Mrs. Earl Goyeau, who had a low gross of 169.
