Guests, Trips Included
In Event-Filled 2 Weeks

An event-filled two weeks was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. James Adams and son Jimmy of Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor. The first began by the arrival of Mrs. Adams' sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. William Bayless and their five-month-old son Billy of Louisville, Ky.

After an enjoyable week's reunion with the Bayless' Mrs. Adams and Jimmy joined them in a motor trip back to Louisville to spend a pleasant few days with her family.

The two weeks were climaxed on the weekend by Mrs. Adams and Jimmy traveling to Dayton, Ohio where they joined Dr. Adams and his company's annual sales banquet.

A scenic motor trip enjoyed primarily by son Robbie to Easton, Conn., began a two week vacation for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield, of Brooklawn road. They were the houseguests of Mrs. Mansfield's parents and spent a relaxing two weeks of swimming and sun bathing with the exception of a one-day shopping spree in New York City by Mrs. Mansfield.

New residents on Graefield road are Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe J. Frankl and their ten-week-old son Phillip. They are formerly of New York City. Mr. Frankl is a graduate of Amherst college and Harvard graduate school of business administration and is associated with Ford Motor.

The Derby area is proud of its most recent contest winners. Congratulations go to Mary Beth Wilkie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wilkie, Jr. of 1776 Derby road, and Jean Amoros, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Amoros of 1678 Derby road for capturing two first places in a recent coloring contest sponsored by a local Birmingham merchant. The little girls each received a dressed Ginny doll.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Case and children Roger, Marsha and Beth, were hosts to Mr. Case's parents Mr. and Mrs. Hughson Case who drove here from Franklinton, Ky. for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon, 1076 Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor, announce the arrival of their 13th son Thomas Patrick born July 29 in Mt. Sinai hospital, Detroit. Tommy was welcomed by his five brothers and sisters, Mary Beth, Paul, Maureen, David and Johnny.

The James Bowers and daughter Kathy of Withersbee road, Troyton Manor, spent the weekend as houseguests of Mrs. Bower's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Steinman of Flint. High point of this visit was experienced by Kathy Bower, 3 1/2.

For the first time she was allowed to accompany her parents and grandparents at the summer stock production of "The King and I." The Bowers returned home just long enough for a change of wardrobe and then motored to Elwood.

50th Wedding Anniversary
Causes Bricker Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bricker of North Glengary road entertained at a family dinner party in their home Wednesday evening. Co-host and hostess for the event were the Marley Brickers of Cranbrook road. The occasion was the 50th wedding anniversary of the Meade L. Brickers of Detroit.

To announce the event to relatives and friends an antique touring car was parked in the driveway, a little Ford run-about of 1906 vintage with the wedding date on it. Quite apropos considering Mr. Bricker was with the Ford Motor Co. for some 45 years and that the couple were married on August 15th, 1906.

Mrs. John Sutherland of St. Petersburg, Fla., was an out-of-town guest attending her sister's anniversary. Four grandchildren, Nancy, Chick, Mary Ann and Sally were also there.

Chick has just returned from Lost Trail Camp for Boys at Sula, Montana, while Nancy has spent a week with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gerhard, Twin Bridges near Grayling.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Smart of Overhill road are entertaining their daughter and son-in-law, Major and Mrs. Wesley E. Young and grandsons, Randy, 9, and Brad, 6. The Youngs, who formerly made their home in Dallas, Texas, have just returned to this country after spending the last three years in Japan. Around Sept. 1, the Young family will leave for New York to embark for Germany where Major Young's next assignment awaits him.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Beauchamp of Roland drive entertained two "Summer Bachelors" for dinner while their families were out of town last week. The bachelors are being Mr. Walter Hahn and Mr. Elton Higgins.

On last Friday evening the Beauchamps entertained the Fred Cowins, the Herbert C. Woolsons and the Welles Jarth at a cook-out in their yards.

Mr. Harry Fromm of Yarmouth road, Mr. Beaubien's father, was honored by a family dinner in celebration of his birthday. Among those attending were Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Donahue and three sons of Cass City, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Burieligh of Glengary circle have recently returned home after a ten-day summer visit to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Their son and wife, the John Parker Burielighs who have spent the last year in Worcester, Mass., have returned to make their home in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walls of Huggs Cross road and their children, Jim, Nancy and Virginia, have spent a great share of their summer at their cottage on Island Lake near Brighton, but last weekend the family traveled to Alpena where they spent the weekend at Lost Lake Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Beers of Cranbrook Cross road, with their three children, Royce, Lynne and Janis, have recently returned from vacationing at Black Lake in Northern Michigan.

Sandy Sisson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Sisson, is spending two weeks as a guest of Mrs. Ned Kaidler at her summer cabin at Onaway, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thomas have had the pleasure of visits from all their grandchildren this summer, the most recent visitor was Wendell Lewellen III who is seven and lives with his family in their new home in Ann Arbor.

Friends of Beverly Bleakley, daughter of the Wm. W. Bleakleys of Overhill road, will be glad to hear "Bev" will return home on the 17th, from Ann Arbor where she has been attending the summer session of the school of nursing at the University of Michigan.
