Kathleen O'toole Returns From Touring 7 Countries

The Frank O'Toole's Kathleen is home from Europe. She sailed last June with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lemke and their two daughters from Wing Lake. Mrs. Lemke is Kathy's French teacher. The group toured seven countries, and Kathy, whose home is on Stoneleigh, liked picturesque Italy and quaint Switzerland best.

The Sidney McKennas of Thorncrest loaded up their station wagon recently with their four youngsters and the various items used for outdoor living and headed up Lake Simcoe way. They pitched a tent, cooked their food over the camp fire and swam every day. Not too cold for this way of life? Not so, say the McKennas—"I was the best vacation yet."

"Mitzie," sorrowful dachshund of Dr. John Hubert has a face as big as her body. Her mistress, Mrs. John Hubert, and her four young pals, Diane, Karen, Chris and Kurt are still out in California at Carmel, and things around the Stoneleigh house are mighty lonely.

Mitzie wanders across the lawn to next door neighbors, the Murrie Bettases, where Stoneleigh's traveling cocker spaniel, "Honey," lives. Since Honey isn't traveling, at least not at present, she's company for a lonesome dog.

And Honey's mistress, too, has been very much on the go with four trips to Alabama since June, perhaps, something of a record. Mrs. Bettas with her mother, Mrs. Mamie North of Bessemer, Ala., and John Pinkham of St. Petersburg, Fla., is visiting her daughters with a trip to see the beauty of the Smoky mountains and do some hiking in the Blue Ridge mountains in North Carolina.

At the recent Hearst golf tournament on North Hills, the Harvey Ewalds' Freddy, better known as "Little Ben," shot a 90. Among

The Lees are from Cleveland, and Kent Lee is with D'Arcy advertising, Detroit.

The Jim Tuys of Lahser had recent New York guests. The J. C. Tuys and the Robert Reinbarts were here from Buffalo, Friday. Jim and Ginny Tuys will leave for a two-week stay in New York state. The Irwins, Charles and Adele, of Orchard Bend, had as a guest last week, Mrs. Marion Hugg of St. Louis. Mrs. Hugg, a cousin of Mrs. Irwin, came in on the Georgian Bay cruise. This week a niece, Faye Eggerding, is a guest.

The Clark Duffys of Maple road have their grandchildren, Anne Marie and Jean Marlene, with them. The youngsters returned with the Duffys from Milwaukee where they were visiting their daughter and son-in-law, the Gordon Keatings.

Mrs. Frank Rockwells' Saturday night party brought many members of her family from near and far. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas R. Peirce, Jr. came in from Low An-

Luncheon & Cards Planned by Guild

An Oriental theme will be used when Seton guild of the St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher home sponsors a luncheon and card party Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. Scheduled to be held in the La-hore lounge at the home on Twelve Mile and Inkster roads, the event will benefit a fund for the building of shelters to house the children's large toys.

Mrs. Jack Collins, the guild's new president, is chairman of this first party of the 1956-57 season. She is being assisted by Mrs. Burnett Reamer, past president. Committee members are Mrs. Frances Vallez, Mrs. Joseph Nathan, Mrs. Helmut Hicks, Mrs. Aloysius Fuhrman, Mrs. William Doolley, Mrs. Jerry Flanagan, Mrs. Harold Taylor, Mrs. Paul O'Connor, Mrs. Harry Rendell and Mrs. Bernard O'Meara. Decorations are being handled by Mrs. Fey Baldwin and Mrs. S. Nakagawa.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Leo Weber of Detroit. Mrs. Edward Dooley of Lathrup Village and Mrs. Clinton Wise of Southfield township.

Spending a three-week visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Etchell of Wat-tles road, Bloomfield township, is Mrs. Etchell's sister, Miss Ann Boyle of Boston, Mass.

Having fun, too, at the swim and dance affair were the Bill Mauckes, the Robert Begles, the John Lindquist, the Bob McGuire, the Bob Dussogas and the John Piccus. The Dupont Yagers were there from Snowshoe circle and the Frank Lieverts from Chesterfield.
