

LANZ LOVES MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS and this fall as always they have designed a dress especially for them. This one is made of imported Austrian cotton patterned with the silhouette of Salzburg buildings. The delicately pouffed sleeves, the loop braid trim at the neck and sleeves and the full skirts are equally becoming to tots, teens and their mamas. Models for the frocks are Mrs. Lloyd Diehl, Jr., of Suffield, Birmingham, and five-year-old Wendy Sundberg, daughter of the Carl Sundbergs of Martel drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Andersons Await Daughter's Arrival

Mrs. John Bennett and children, Peter and Debra, will arrive Saturday by plane from Marblehead Neck, Mass., to spend two weeks with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, of Chestersfield, Birmingham. It will be their first opportunity to hear of the recent trip to Europe which Mr. and Mrs. Anderson returned from at the end of June. Bennett will fly to Birmingham at the end of the two weeks visit to return home with his family.

To the Editor:

I would like to give you a brief account of my wonderful adventure - the American Field Service - has given me in Europe.

I'm living in Heilbronn, Germany, with a wonderful family. I have three foster brothers, and one foster-sister. My foster-parents are very understanding and friendly. They have taken me on many trips through Germany, the most recent being to Heidelberg. While in Heidelberg we met Mr. Hubbard (a Birmingham high school teacher) and his group of Birmingham high school and college students on their tour through Europe. They are all having an exciting experience as am I.

WE ALSO met Lt. and Mrs. William N. Mollison (Mrs. Mollison is the former Rev. Nordstrom of N. Glenview drive in Birmingham). Together, Mr. Hubbard's group, Lt. and Mrs. Mollison, and my foster-family had a wonderful visit talking about the experiences of Europe.

Hubbard's group just left England and the next stop after Heidelberg, Germany, is the Black Forest and then on to Switzerland. They will conclude their tour in Paris.

My next trip will be with German and American boys of my age (17) and we will take a five-day bicycle trip, staying at youth hostels throughout Germany. Then on August 23 all the American Field Service exchange students of Germany will take a boat trip down the Rhine river. We too will end our wonderful experience in Paris. We will dock in New York on Sept. 10.
