Vacation Spots Highlight News of Area Residents

Mrs. Fred Cornett and son, Donald of Hickory Heights drive spent two weeks enjoying the surf and sand at Virginia Beach, Va. A side trip was taken to Williamsburg, where they roomed through the museums and historical landmarks. A boat trip to Pointe Comfort was another highlight of their vacation. They also were entertained in Norfolk, where Mrs. Cornett's brother resides.

The Dwayne Curtis family of Hickory Heights drive are enjoying two weeks at Higgins Lake. It will be swimming, looking for shells and loafing for the family, which includes Christine, Mary, John and Dwayne, Jr.

Another family taking in cottage life for two weeks are the Fred Wilsons of Hickory Heights drive. They chose Lake Charlevoix as their destination, where they plan to enjoy the sun and swimming with their three children, Peg, Nancy and Ricky.

The John Ashok of Orchard Hill drive are spending their three weeks vacation this year at Torch Lake.

Many children in the North Adams area are attending the six-week summer course at Cranbrook Academy, which takes in swimming, instruction and handicraft. Mothers in Hickory Heights formed a car pool to make the transportation problem easier. Those attending from this area are Patrick Richardson, Martha and Jim Bryan, Patty and Ken Severs.

A group of 26 members of Christ church Cranbrook met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Strossen-Router of Lenox road last week. The group met every two weeks for bible study and are served refreshments in the different homes. Mrs. William Heaton of Anselme lane led the discussion.

Polly Jane's seven-week old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Wobrock was baptized Sunday, July 22, by the Rev. Harrison E. Stone at St. James Episcopal church in Birmingham.

Following the service, a family dinner was held at the home of the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolff, 2774 Huntington court, Parker and Sally Wolff, the Wolff's son and daughter-in-law, arrived home last week after four years in the Navy, for the occasion. The Wobrocks are moving to Chicago this week, where they plan to make their home.

Newcomers to Charing Cross Estates are the Edward Chamberlains of Tullamore drive, formerly of St. Louis, Mo. They have three children, Susan 5, Laura, 2, Ruth, 1. Mr. Chamberlain is district manager for Jacobs Manufacturing Co. He is a graduate of Bowdoin college in Brunswick, Me. The Chamberlains enjoy a vacation around their new home. The family is looking forward to a week's vacation at Hartford, Conn. this month when they will be visiting both sets of grandparents.
