Rock and Mineral Collection Enlarged After Western Trip

At an unofficial meeting of the Lathrup Rocks and Boulder club Saturday evening, the Bob Vints and Vince Zattels gathered at the Ted Garrish home on Lathrup avenue to admire the latest additions to the Garrish rock and mineral collection.

Recently returned from a western trip, the Garrish's displayed Idaho potato rocks, thunder eggs, Wyoming jade, interesting fossilized fish and petrified wood.

True "rock hounds," Mr. and Mrs. Garrish and son Ted drove as far as 20 miles off main highways in Utah and Wyoming to dig their own specimens. According to Mrs. Garrish, small hills ceased to be such when looking back at their parked car she seemed to be peering through the wrong end of binoculars.

At the meeting, the Zattel gentlemen didn't tell on the other member of their family, who dodging snakebush and rattlesnakes, in visit brother Bill who is a cadet at the Air Force Academy at Lowry Field near Denver. Recent house guest of the Andrew Carnegies were Mrs. Fred W. Sullivan and Mrs. Mabel Combs of Kalamazoo who, with Mrs. Carnegie, attended a dinner party at the home of Miss Peg Hayes of Birmingham. All the 20 guests had been on a European tour with Mrs. Carnegie during May and June of this year.

Eight Lathrup scouts are sharing a tent at Charles Howell Scout Reservation. Lathrup is well represented by Ted Garrish, Bob Knighton, Jim and Bob Powell, Mike Maser, Bill Starkey, Bill Kimberley and Leo Mueller.

Guests of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Knighton are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor of Banning, Calif. The Taylor children, Ruth, Lee W., Jeanne and Warren are visiting Greenfield Village and Cranbrook.

Spending the summer with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vint are Lanie Lee Vint of Torrance, Calif., and Patricia Ann Vint. Ten-year-old Lanie Lee is still rather breathless over the plane trip she made all alone early this summer. Patricia Ann, who followed a few weeks later, is enjoying swimming trips and all the things to see in Michigan.

Returning from the Sadlers-Wells school in England, Nancy Carnegie arrived in New York on Tuesday aboard the S. S. Flandre. After spending a few days at Mountain Lakes, N. J. as a house guest of the William McDury's, Nancy will arrive home on Friday. During her vacation, Nancy will Honoring her daughter, Mrs. Alan (Joan) MacFarland, Mrs. Edward C. Tieman was hostess at a luncheon. Mrs. Tieman is now living in Oak Park Garden apartments, having leased her home on Lathrup Blvd.

Joan returned Friday by plane to her home in Washington, D. C., where she is assistant fashion coordinator in one of the large department stores, to start work on the fashion show for the college set.

Next week, Mrs. Tieman will visit Washington to help celebrate Joan's birthday.

Entertain Visitors from Sweden

The Gilbert Borgquist's of Meadow Lake road have had friends from Mr. Borgquist's of birthplace, Orsa, Sweden, visiting them for a few days—Mr. and Mrs. Tage Thureson and their son Lars. While here, they visited the Ford plant and Greenfield Village.

The Borgquist's son Gilbert, surprised his parents by arriving home on leave from Lowry air force base, Denver, several weeks sooner than they expected.

The family left Saturday for their lake home and will return in time for Gilbert to visit with friends and former teachers at Hillsdale college before his return to Denver Aug. 6.

Dinner on the patio of the Harold Rowe home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sturz and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welsh celebrated Mrs. Rowe's birthday, July 24. A game of golf preceded the dinner. The Rowes have their two grandchildren, Deborah and Jimmie Taube of Miami, Fla., visiting them until the latter part of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Wilson, Franklin road, entered the "Ball and Chain" golf tournament at the

IT TAKES YEARS

Yes, indeed, many years of training in the real estate business and in the community concerned before real estate salesmen or brokers are really well equipped to estimate the current market price of your property. Nothing can be more important to any seller than a correct market figure when he wishes to sell.

Our personnel, in the main, has many years of training, experience and direction than most offices in order to properly represent you. In the sale or purchase of a home, the talents of a good real estate representative are altogether of primary importance. Don't place yourself as an owner or buyer, in the hands of a novice or with anyone of only mediocre competency. Find out how long your agent has operated in your immediate area.
