Gail Sundstrom-Charles Barnes Rites To Be Solemnized Saturday

Gail Sundstrom has been a busy girl this summer with preparations and preliminary parties in anticipation of her marriage this Saturday. She will wed Charles Barnes in a 4:00 p.m. ceremony at Redeemer Lutheran church, Birmingham.

A group of neighbors, Mrs. John Richter, of Wine Lake, entertained in her honor at a Sunday luncheon and shower. On another Sunday, Gail's aunt, Mrs. William Sundstrom of Huntington Woods gave a shower and buffet supper.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor, Pat Peluso, Beverly Miller, Judy Sundstrom and Mabel Harabedian co-hosted a personal shower last week for Gail's intimates.

On Friday evening the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Barnes, Elton Cross drive, Bloomfield Hills, are planning a rehearsal dinner for the bridal party and family of the bride. Gail is the Nyberg home, with other neighbors as guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell of Putnam drive are enjoying their grandchildren, Pat, Jill and Tommy Brovarney, who are spending the summer with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cass Brovarney, the parents, who recently moved to Chicago Heights from their home here, brought the children in July and stayed on for a week's visit.

While here, many of their old friends dropped in to see them. Mrs. Brovarney was honor guest at a baby shower given at the Harjo Woods home of Mrs. J. Brovarney.

Joyce Bell has just returned from her third yearly trip to the Joklas Fly to Finland, Section 2, Page 1

Shakespeare Festival in Stratford, Ontario, and is busy making plans for a trip to Europe this fall.

Members of the beach association of Sub 1 got together at a square dance last month to raise funds for improvements at the clubhouse.

NEW AREA RESIDENTS

A late welcome to the H. Nelson McManus family, who moved here last fall from Abbington road in northwest Detroit. They built on Old Orchard drive, and have been busy since with the landscaping and gardening.

The family includes two grown sons. Bob, now in the U. S. Marine Corps, visited here the early part of May, just before leaving for overseas. He is at present in Japan. John, in the U. S. Navy, is stationed in San Diego. He has finished his boat training, and has been enrolled in the sonar school.

McManus, associated with the R. G. Mueller Co., Detroit, is an active Rotarian and a 32nd Degree Mason, belonging to the Commandery No. 1. He enjoys fishing and bowling, and is a photography fan.

Mrs. McManus, a graduate of the University of Michigan, flew down to the couple's Clearwater, Fla. home in July. On her return trip she brought with her Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dusenbery of Belleair, Fla., her parents, who will stay here until the latter part of September.

Welcome also to the Paul Colbrooke of Bryn Mawr drive, who moved here from Oak Park. They have a son, Paul David, a June graduate of U. of D. high school, who will enter the school of liberal arts at the University of Detroit this fall. He likes all sports, having a preference for tennis and golf.

Colbrooke is associated with Chrysler corporation. The family is planning a late summer vacation.

Housewarming for New Family Draws 100 Guests

Over 100 guests attended a housewarming party Sunday afternoon given by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Witoszynski and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dubowsky complimenting the Walter Witoszynski family who recently moved to their new home on Elwood drive in Farmington Hills, Michigan.

Following an afternoon of games and group singing, a buffet supper was served to guests from Birmingham, Detroit, Flint, Florida, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Dancing in the garage climaxed the day's festivities with a three-piece orchestra furnishing the music. The Witoszynskis have four children, Carol Ann, Michael, Diane and Robert. Mr. Witoszynski is associated with the Triangle Electric Co.

Dr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Wood of Marion drive had quite a nice vacation trip. Two weeks ago they hitched a comfortable and well-equipped house trailer to the family car, and with their four children, Linda, Stephanie, Dickie and Bonnie took off for New England and Florida.

They stopped overnight at various points along the way and enjoyed outdoor picnic suppers and playground facilities.

The family visited Mrs. Wood's parents in Maine and toured the New England states and in Massachusetts visited with Dr. Wood's parents.

Last week the Harold Humbert home on Leoforum drive was the scene of a family reunion. A picnic supper was served to six couples and 15 children. Later in the evening friends of the family joined the group for a marshmallow roast.

Mrs. Russell McKinney of Stellmar drive spent a week at the W. R. Fox cottage at Au Sable and was joined by Mr. McKinney for the weekend. The McKinneys entertained Mrs. D. L. Briegel, daughter-in-law of Sam, at a dinner party last week. The Briegels, former Bloomfield Village residents now live in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

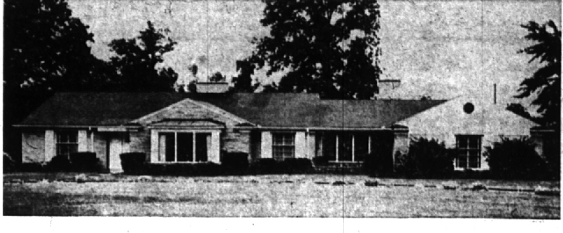

WESTLY ROAD recently returned from their summer vacation. The Herolds along with Cathy, 4, and Joan, 3, flew out to Hays, Kans. to visit Mrs. Herold's sister, Mrs. S. W. Lamer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Herold of Westly road recently returned from their summer vacation. The Herolds along with Cathy, 4, and Joan, 3, flew out to Hays, Kans. to visit Mrs. Herold's sister, Mrs. S. W. Lamer and family.

Cathy and John had an extra thrill because Daddy, formerly an air force officer, chartered and flew his own plane.

After a few days in Hays, the Herolds left the children with their cousins and along with Mr. Evergreen, Colo. Here they just relaxed and enjoyed themselves fishing, swimming and exploring the mountain trails on horses.

VALLEY WOODS HELLO

Neighbors on East Bellvue trail are welcoming Mr. and Mrs. Hans H. Frederickson, formerly of northwest Detroit. The Fredericksons have a son, Richard, who along with his family reside in Cincinnati, Ohio. The grandchildren, Stephanie, 8, and Barbie, 5, visit here often.

Mr. Frederickson is president of the Sheldon Granite Co. His favorite hobbies, golf and fishing, have been given up for the ever-present yardwork. Mr. and Mrs. Frederickson attend the Mayflower Congregational church, Detroit.

On Valen court, the C. V. Larch family formerly of Birmingham, are getting settled. Sandy, 13½, will attend Derby junior high and at home is Carol Ann, 2½.

Mr. Larch is manufacturer's representative for Firestone Co. Our surrounding C country are of special interest to him. The Larch family attends Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

At a family dinner party, the William Flajoles of Breeze-wood celebrated the young Miss Steffi's third birthday. Steffi enjoyed the many little gifts given her by brother and sister, Buck and Diane, for use in the family swimming pool.

AU SABLE CANOE TRIP
Back Flajole, Gary Andrus, Bill Wisley and Harry Kimusky, all of Eastlady spent a week of thrills canoeing down the Au Sable. The boys started off at Grayling and traveled down the river 100 miles to Mio. Outdoor living comforts and cooking depended upon their skill.

When the foursome left the Flajole home on Breeze-wood court, Buck's mother inquired if enough food had been purchased. She was informed everything was well taken care of and that they would bring back half.

Not anticipating their rugged outdoor appetites, the second day out all the provisions were gone, but the boys were lucky to come upon a little general store. The tales brought home were so fascinating, a similar trip might be planned by some of the parents.

Janet Skull of Bellvue trail had as her houseguest, Mary Whitehouse of Detroit. Days were full of activities—picnic, a trip to Kensington park and back-to-school shopping. Monday afternoon, Mrs. Charles Skull entertained at luncheon Mrs. Herbert Whitehouse and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rae of Detroit.

In what proved to be ideal traveling weather, the Fred Polidan of Orchard lane toured the Upper Peninsula. The family started off and point of destination was anywhere they fancy decided.

A two-day stop was taken at a resort, Lake in the Clouds, perched high on a hill with a sheer drop to the lake. The Polidan children were able to see Michigan wildlife—in particular, a friendly bear.
